

Ohio Assembly Again Takes Up Campaign Bills

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Ohio's politically divided legislature reconvenes in special session today to try to resolve an impasse over campaign financing legislation.

The Senate and House both scheduled 4 p.m. floor sessions, but leaders plan a recess for party caucuses to map strategy. Night sessions are expected for floor action on separate Republican and Democratic bills.

A Gilligan administration bill probably will be passed by the House, controlled by Democrats 58-41, while the Republican dominated Senate (17-16) is expected to send the lower chamber its own version of a bill.

The bills agree in principle but differ in key areas, especially over how to handle campaign contributions by labor unions and other organizations.

Gov. John J. Gilligan wants union political action committees to decide how to spend contributions from individual members, while Republicans insist that the union members be allowed to earmark their individual donations.

Gilligan said his proposal would encourage more political participation by small contributors because it does not require disclosure by contributors of $10 or less. The political action committees have more political expertise in the selection of candidates likely to be more sympathetic with union causes, the Democrats argue.

Rep. Alan E. Norris, R-25 Westerville, a Republican spokesman, charged that the Democratic bill seeks to impose severe restrictions on Republican campaign activity while providing a loophole for the Democrats single biggest sources of funds—the unions.

At the same time, Democrats point to a feature of the Republican bill they claim circumvents a proposed $3,000 ceiling on contributions from individuals.

William Chavanne, legislative aide of the governor, said the GOP proposal would allow wealthy individuals to contribute $3,000 to the state party and the same amount to each of 88 county organizations.

"That's no limit at all," Chavanne said.

The governor's assistant said he does not deny the Republican charge that the Democrats get most of their contributions from union-oriented organizations.

More Recipients For Welfare Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government has begun searching for aged, blind and disabled Americans who may be eligible for newly federalized welfare payments beginning Jan. 1.

Arthur E. Hess, deputy commissioner of the Social Security Commission, disclosed in an interview that his agency is surveying 400,000 persons in areas of large elderly and poor populations and another 88,000 in a nationwide sampling.

If the nationwide survey is productive, he said, Social Security is prepared to contact another 1.6 million potential recipients of Supplemental Security Income (SSI), the new name for the federal takeover of adult welfare cases.

By phone and mail, district offices are explaining benefits and eligibility to the aged poor, and collecting preliminary information on each person's unearned income and assets.

In the interview, Hess spoke cautiously of previous HEW estimates that about 3 million persons would be added to SSI rolls by next July 1, in addition to the 3.4 million now receiving welfare who will be converted automatically.

"I'm not prepared to say publicly or privately yet that this is an overestimate," Hess said. "But many of the 3 million may not be in a hurry to come in, for one reason or another."

"In a year or so from now, when word gets around I think many of these nonparticipants gradually are going to warm up to the idea," he said.

The new law guarantees a minimum monthly income of $130 for eligible individuals and $195 for couples, rising to $140 and $210 respectively in mid-1974.

In general, SSI checks will be mailed monthly to elderly, blind and disabled persons who receive less than $150, or $215 for couples, from Social Security benefits, pensions, workman's compensation, black lung benefits or insurance annuities, and who have less than $1,500 or $2,250 in bank deposits, stocks or bonds.

Eligibility is denied to those owning houses assessed at more than $25,000, or $35,000 in Alaska and Hawaii, or cars valued at more than $1,200 unless necessary in employment or for medical reasons.

States are required to maintain each person's support at December 1973 levels, or face the loss of federal matching funds for Medicaid.

Before Congress amended the law to protect incomes of those now on welfare, total state-federal costs of the new program had been estimated at $4.8 billion the first year. New cost estimates have not been completed.

Freezing Weather Reported

Temperatures dipped below the freezing mark today in the central Plains and the northern Great Lakes region as showers and thunderstorms dampened widely scattered areas across the continent.

A few light showers lingered in the lower Great Lakes and into Tennessee and the Ohio Valley. A few thunderstorms rolled over the eastern Ohio Valley and the middle and southern Atlantic coastal states.

Scattered showers swept the Pacific Northwest as gusty winds up to 40 miles an hour blew through the valleys and passes of the northern Rockies, where some snow fell. At Owyhee in extreme northern Nevada, an inch of snow was reported Sunday night.

Rainfall measurements early today totaled less than an inch in most places except West Virginia and Virginia. Martinsburg, W. Va., received 1.8 inches and Charlottesville, Va., 1.5.

Over the weekend, some snow fell in Montana and South Dakota. Sleet iced parts of Nebraska and Newton, Kan., was riddled with large hail stones in 75 m.p.h. winds.

Cloudy and cool with occasional rain or drizzle today with the high in the upper 40s. Cloudy with chances of showers tonight, low, upper 30s. Partly cloudy and cool Tuesday, high, low 50s. Probability of rain, 60 per cent today, 40 per cent tonight and 20 per cent tomorrow.

Egyptians Get Supplies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Israel reported that its air and ground forces shot down three Egyptian helicopters over the southwest coast of the Sinai peninsula early today.

Israel said the air battle did not interrupt the delivery of emergency supplies of food, water and medicine to Egyptian troops stranded on the Sinai side of the Suez Canal.

Egyptian trucks with U.N. drivers were delivering the supplies for the Egyptian 3rd Army, an Israeli spokesman said, and they were being loaded on Egyptian barges and boats that were carrying them to the troops trapped on the east bank.

The spokesman said the supplies were being ferried from a part of the town of Suez, at the southern end of the canal, that is still controlled by the Egyptians.

"It is going slowly because they do not have enough boats, we believe," the spokesman said.

The International Red Cross Committee in Geneva announced that Israel was refusing to let Red Cross trucks with medical supplies pass through its lines to the Egyptian 3rd Army as long as Egypt and Syria refused to supply lists of the Israelis they captured in the war. But this deadlock apparently had no bearing on the other supply operations.

The Israelis had hinted earlier that Egyptian violations of the cease-fire could endanger U.N. supply convoys which began moving Sunday to Egyptian troops and civilians trapped behind the Israeli lines.

But the communique reporting the helicopter incident said nothing about suspending the convoys in retaliation.

The Israeli command said its jet fighters were sent up to intercept the Egyptian helicopters over an Israeli position a few miles south of the Egyptian 3rd Army, which is encircled on the Sinai side of the Suez Canal.

The communique said the planes hit two of the helicopters and anti-aircraft gunners brought down a third.

On the west side of the canal Sunday, 100 Egyptian trucks with U.N. drivers began passing through the Israeli lines 60 miles from Cairo with food, water and medical supplies for the 3rd Army and the thousands of civilians trapped in Suez, the Egyptian town at the southern end of the canal.

The first convoy of 10 trucks was reported to have reached the canal by midnight, but a U. N. spokesman in Jerusalem said at 7 a.m. that he had no word that it had crossed to the Egyptian troops on the east side.

Another convoy of 10 trucks pulled into Suez, where Israeli soldiers said there were 15,000 civilians.

The Israelis said Sunday that Egyptian artillery had opened up on the first convoys, apparently by mistake. There were no casualties.

Advance units of the U. N. peacekeeping force also arrived at Suez and Ismailia and began making arrangements to bring in larger units to police the cease-fire.

Of the 600 troops sent to Egypt temporarily from the U.N. peacekeeping force in Cyprus, the 200 Finnish troops were to be based in Suez, the 200 Swedes at Ismailia, which is at the midpoint of the canal, and the 200 Austrians will remain in Cairo as a reserve force, a U.N. spokesman there said.

U.N. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim hopes to complete recruiting the new Middle East force of 7,000 men from 10 to 15 countries by Tuesday or Wednesday, a U.N. spokesman in New York reported. He said the first of these troops should arrive by next weekend.

Israel, meanwhile, complained to U.N. observers of an Egyptian cease-fire violation, saying that an Egyptian commando platoon slipped across the Suez Canal from the east bank Sunday and attacked Israeli forces north of the town of Suez.

WHERE THEY STAND — Black arrows and Egyptian flags indicate areas east of the Suez Canal presently occupied by Egyptian forces. Open arrows with Israel's Star of David flag show areas, dotted, west of Suez Canal and in Syria which are now held by Israelis. Egyptian and Israeli guns were reported quiet as U.N. peace-keeping forces arrived to enforce cease-fire.

Trade Spurt With Red Nations No Cause For Cheer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States is headed for a huge $2 billion trade surplus with Communist nations this year, but it's nothing for American consumers to cheer about.

The surplus, far exceeding original forecasts by the Nixon administration, is being built largely on agricultural exports, mainly the massive wheat deal with the Soviet Union.

That deal drained much-needed U.S. grain supplies and contributed heavily to the big upsurge in food prices this year.

Ironically, the trade surplus with Communist nations is giving the dollar a boost, making it stronger than it might otherwise have been, U.S. officials said.

Trade with Communist nations is one big reason why the nation's trading accounts are expected to be in the black this year for the first time in three years.

U.S. exports to Russia, mainland China and Communist European countries will be $2.5 billion to $2.9 billion this year, while imports from those countries will be $500 to $550 million, Commerce Department analysts said.

This compares with exports of $878 million and imports of $354 million last year.

"I doubt very much if trade is going to be at this year's magnitude in 1974," said Steven Lazarus, head of the department's Bureau of East-West Trade.

Lazarus said he anticipated a 25 per cent dropoff in U.S. trade with Communist nations next year, largely because of smaller agricultural purchases by the Soviet Union and mainland China.

But exports of other American-made goods will increase, he said.

There is one problem clouding the picture, U.S. officials said. Congress is working on legislation that would deny tariff cuts to the Soviet Union until Russia changes its policies dealing with Jewish emigration.

Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz says failure of Congress to grant the Soviet Union the same rates on tariffs as other U.S. trading partners could imperil expanded trade between the two countries.

Indonesia Eyes Oil Sales To U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Indonesia, with rich oil deposits, may bid to help fill this country's potential petroleum gap, U.S. intelligence sources say.

Oil-producing Arab states in the Persian Gulf-Middle East area have moved either to cut off or reduce shipments of petroleum to the United States in retaliation for U.S. arms aid to Israel.

Although the United States gets most of its imported oil from Canada and Venezuela, about 6 to 10 per cent of this country's needs are met by Persian Gulf sources.

The intelligence sources said they believe the Indonesian government, anxious to develop its valuable petroleum resources, might take the opportunity presented by the Arab retaliatory actions to offer greater U.S. access to its oil in return for financing help.

They said Indonesia, though largely Moslem, has kept its support of the Arabs at a low key during the three-week Middle East war.

Except for encouraging voluntary fund-raising, Indonesian government leaders did little to back the Arabs openly, according to intelligence reports.

Analysts also noted that the Asian nation has been friendly with the United States since the late President Sukarno was ousted by anti-Communist generals in 1965.

Therefore, U.S. officials said, there is no serious ideological or political barrier to U.S.-Indonesian cooperation in developing oil resources.

They also noted that income from oil exports represents more than half of Indonesia's foreign earnings.

Only 16 per cent of Indonesia's oil production has been going to the United States. The great bulk is sold to Japan.

Indonesia produced nearly 400 million barrels of oil last year, and that output is expected to rise by about 90 million barrels this year. According to current estimates, the nation's untapped oil reserves amount to as much as 15 billion barrels.

Alert Still In Effect

WASHINGTON (AP) — A precautionary alert was still in effect today for about 400,000 U.S. servicemen as the result of Middle East tensions.

Pentagon officials did not say when the alert status would be ended.

President Nixon said he ordered all 2.2 million men in U.S. military service placed on alert before dawn Thursday, explaining later it had been "to indicate to the Soviet Union that we could not accept any unilateral act on their part" in the Mideast.

Officials had said they received reports 50,000 Soviet paratroopers had been placed on alert and that some might be sent to the Mideast to enforce the Arab-Israeli ceasefire.

The U.S. alert ended Saturday for all servicemen except 320,000 stationed in Europe and 80,000 attached to the Atlantic command, which includes major fleet units.

Jacked-Up Cars Soon Illegal In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Cars with their back bumpers jacked up to give greater roadway traction will be banned from Ohio highways starting Wednesday.

That's when a new state law goes into effect that prohibits roadway use by cars with bumpers modified more than three inches.

State highway officials testified that the modified cars are unstable and are fire hazards because of the likelihood of a gas tank rupture if the car is struck from behind.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio recorded its bloodiest non-holiday weekend of the year on the streets and highways with at least 27 persons killed in traffic accidents.

The Ohio Highway Patrol said it was the highest toll of 1973 for a regular 54-hour weekend. The previous high was 24 deaths.

The toll included four double-fatality accidents. Four of the victims were pedestrians and two were motorcyclists.

The dead:
SUNDAY
FREMONT — David J. Fisher, 5, and his sister, Linda, 11, both of New London, Conn., in a two-car accident on the Ohio Turnpike in Sandusky County.

MENTOR — Arnie Pritchard, 65, of Cleveland, in a two-car smashup on the Lakeland Freeway in Mentor.

CLEVELAND — Jean Coville, 61, of Lyndhurst, when hit by a car while crossing a street in Warrensville Heights.

CINCINNATI — Carl Jones, 28, Norwood, when he was struck by a car while aiding another motorist on Interstate 75.

CINCINNATI — Richard Feldman, 18, of Cincinnati, of injuries suffered Saturday when the car in which he was riding struck a utility pole on Blue Rock Road in Hamilton County.

WOODVILLE — Michael Prufau, 15, of River Rouge, Mich., in a two-car crash on the main street in Woodville.

ST. CLAIRSVILLE — Mathew Glad,

48, and Ida Glad, 33, both of Marianna, Pa., when their car ran off Interstate 70 in Belmont County near here.

BATAVIA — Buster Hacker, 40, of Milford, whose car ran off a Clermont County road near his home.

PIQUA — Jeffrey Anderson, 18, of Piqua, when his car hit a tree two miles southeast of Piqua.

BUCKEYE LAKE — William Milsted, 26, of Newark, whose car ran under a semi-rig on Ohio 79 in Buckeye Lake.

SATURDAY
DAYTON — Steven Sharp, 17, of Dayton, when thrown off his motorcycle on a Dayton street.

UPPER SANDUSKY — Corrine Lundy, 66, and Dessie Roush, 78, both of rural Upper Sandusky when their car and another collided on U.S. 23 in Wyandot County.

NAPOLEON — William Miller, 75, of rural Wauseon, in a two car crash on a Napoleon street.

CINCINNATI — Robert Shirvers, 45, whose address was not reported, when his car slammed into two utility poles and a tree in Cincinnati.

CAMBRIDGE — Daniel Turcotte, 10 months, of Kent, a passenger in a car that ran off Interstate 77 in Guernsey County.

MILLERSBURG — James E. Morris, 19, of Danville, whose car ran off U.S. 62 in Holmes County.

PORTSMOUTH — Marshall Howard, 36, of South Point, in a two-car crash on U.S. 52 near Portsmouth.

MENTOR — Lola Brown, 27, and her sister, Dora, 17, of Mentor, when their car was hit by a train at a crossing in Mentor.

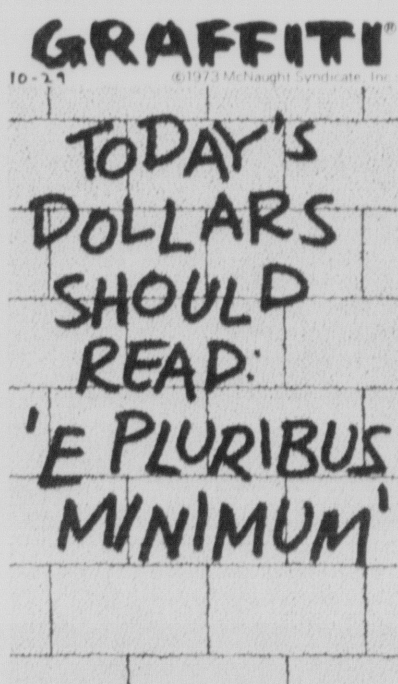

MANSFIELD — James Carmichael, 24, of Mansfield, when his motorcycle struck a bridge abutment on U.S. 30 in Richland County.

SPRINGFIELD — Robert Dunn Jr., 22, of Dayton, in a two-car accident on Interstate 70 in Clark County.

FRIDAY
FAIRBORN — Ronnie Hacker, five weeks old, of Fairborn, in a two-car mishap on a Greene County road.

FREMONT — Adele Roerich, 78, of Fremont, killed when she was struck by a car on a rural road in Sandusky County.

MARIETTA — Robert D. Cross, 49, of Little Hocking, struck by a car on a county road in Washington County.

MAYOR Frank Barnhill today proclaimed this Stages Pond Week ... "We declare that this area and its adjoining woodland must be preserved for a number of reasons: to provide a source of learning; to serve as a museum, to provide for man's spiritual and aesthetic needs; and to serve as a reservoir for a variety of living wild forms"

The drive to save Stages Pond has $15,000 pledged ... A total of $20,000 is needed to put with government matching funds to acquire the property, one of the last vestiges of the great glacier remaining in Ohio ... The kettle hole pond was gouged out by the southern extremity of the glacier ...

Contributions may be mailed to Miss Miriam E. Weaver, General Chairman, Stage's Pond Fund Drive, The Second National Bank of Circleville, Drawer 230.

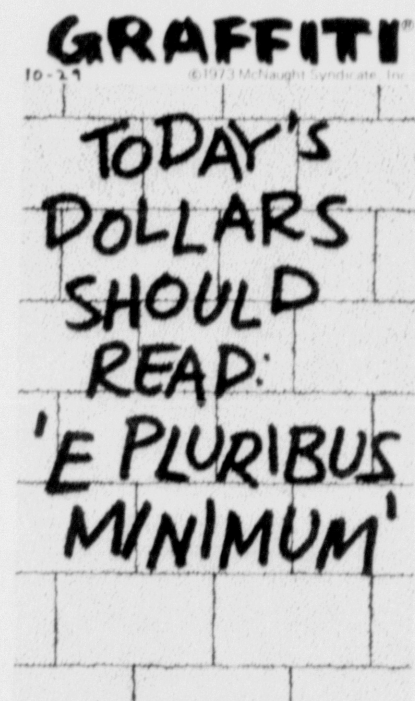

Jacked-Up Cars

Soon Illegal In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Cars with their back bumpers jacked up to give greater roadway traction will be banned from Ohio highways starting Wednesday.

That's when a new state law goes into effect that prohibits roadway use by cars with bumpers modified more than three inches.

State highway officials testified that the modified cars are unstable and are fire hazards because of the likelihood of a gas tank rupture if the car is struck from behind.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was higher today, continuing the advance begun last Friday following the lowering of the prime rate by the nation's second largest bank.

In early trading today the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up a fraction.

In economic news, the government's index of leading indicators fell for the first time in five months.

On the Big Board, most-active American Airlines was unchanged at 13¼; Gulf Oil, up ¼ at 24¾; and Pan Am, unchanged at 6¾. Raytheon gained ⅞ to 34¼ in early trading, while North American Coal rose 1 to 34¼.

Despite crises in Washington and in the Mideast last week, the Dow Jones blue chip average advanced 23.33 points to a Friday high of 87.06, its best closing level since last Feb. 13.

New York's First National City Bank's decision to lower its prime rate on Friday helped push the market higher that day, and a general spreading of the new 9½ per cent rate throughout the industry should help the market today, brokers said.

Police Investigating Thefts, Vandalism

Three thefts and several cases of vandalism are being investigated by Circleville police.

A breaking and entering at the John R. Downs residence, 555 Lawnwood Court, Thursday night or Friday morning, is being probed by city police.

The thieves failed in an attempt to pry open a patio door but managed to kick the rear door of the garage open. They then pried and kicked the kitchen door open to gain entrance to the house.

They ransacked a bedroom and the kitchen dining area and made off with

Demos Heal Party Split

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic party took several more steps toward healing its 1972 wounds over the weekend, as rival factions showed a new willingness to compromise in the name of unity.

The most dramatic demonstration of the spirit of togetherness came Saturday when the party's Delegate Selection Commission unanimously approved the recommendations of its drafting committee for revising the rules that caused much of the 1972 unhappiness.

The rules brought charges of quotas and resulted in the exclusion of many old-line party leaders while producing record numbers of women, minorities and young people at last year's convention.

Although many party regulars and party chairman Robert S. Strauss still favor altering the provision on proportional representation, Strauss said after the meeting, "I don't feel strongly enough to want to cause a big fight over it."

Such a battle would surely occur if the issue is reopened when the rules come before the full Democratic National Committee for approval early next year.

At another party meeting in Louisville, Ky., Friday, the black caucus and other liberals on the national committee supported in the name of unity a top aide to Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace over a Mississippi liberal.

That issue arose when Mrs. Pat Derian, a member of the biracial group that has been recognized by the national party as the representative of Mississippi's Democrats since 1968, challenged Mickey Griffin of Alabama for one of six spots on the Executive Committee.

Earl Craig of Minnesota said the blacks decided to support Griffin, who won overwhelmingly, so that "the efforts that we have been involved in" to produce unity would succeed.

2 Sextuplets Are Taken Home

LAKEWOOD, Colo. (AP) — Two of the five surviving Stanek sextuplets have been taken home from Colorado General Hospital.

The six-weeks-old infants, Steven and John, left the hospital Saturday afternoon in the arms of their parents, Edna and Eugene Stanek.

The other three babies — Catherine, Nathan and Jeffrey — will be allowed to go home within 10 days, said Dr. James Strain, the Stanek's pediatrician.

John weighed four pounds, 13½ ounces and Steven weighed five pounds, 3½ ounces just prior to their release from the hospital.

The babies were born Sept. 16, seven weeks prematurely. Julia, the second girl, died two nights later of a lung ailment.

Teachers Back In Vinton County

McARTHUR, Ohio (AP) —Vinton County teachers apparently ended their month-long strike today and returned to the classroom.

"As far as we know" the teachers returned, a school official said. "We haven't received any word to the contrary."

A settlement in the strike, when began Sept. 21, was reached Friday.

Library Continues Potpourri Program

The public is invited to the second program in the Potpourri Series at the Pickaway County Public Library 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

"Needlepoint Creations" by Mrs. J. M. Hedges will be the topic. Jean is known for her beautiful handmade needlepoint.

In addition to displaying the pieces, she will answer questions from the audience on technique. Other programs in the series include "Making Corn Husk Flowers" by Diane Drew of the Gardenwood Garden Club Nov. 6.

Coach Larry Cook of the Circleville Tigers will talk on "How to Enjoy Television Football" on Nov. 13. The last two programs, on Nov. 20 and Nov. 27, will feature Mrs. Clark McFarland on "Handmade Christmas Ornaments"; and finally, "Christmas Cooking" with Dave Craven. Plan to attend these free morning programs at your public library.

various items. The case is still being investigated.

Barbara Flinn notified police that most of her clothing was taken Saturday while she was in the process of moving at 613 Plaza Drive. She said the items were either taken from the residence or her car.

Larry Pennington, 463½ Watt St., reported the theft of a magnetic sign from the door of his car Saturday night while it was parked in front of his house.

A window was broken in the rear of Giovanni's Pizza, 114 S. Court St., Saturday evening.

Eggs were splattered on the washers, dryers and vending machines at the Washing Well, 1002 S. Court St., early Saturday morning. The vandals also tore down portions of the dropped ceiling in the building.

Juanita Frazier, 359 E. Franklin St., notified police that the front window of her residence was shot out with a BB gun between 3 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. Saturday while she was at work.

Richard Stevens, N. Scioto St., reported that someone slashed two tires on his car Friday night while it was parked at Main and Scioto Sts.

Palestinian State Pushed By Big?

BEIRUT (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union have proposed the formation of a Palestinian state along the Jordan River, the Beirut newspaper An Nahar reported today.

The newspaper said the proposal also calls for international supervision of the Golan Heights and the water route to southern Israel.

Comment on the report was not immediately available from the State Department in Washington.

The paper said the proposal had been communicated to President Anwar Sadat of Egypt but did not say where it obtained the information.

An Nahar gave this outline of the peace plan:

—Israel would withdraw from the Sinai Peninsula, the West Bank of the Jordan and the Golan Heights, all captured by the Israelis in 1967.

—A Palestinian state would be formed embracing Gaza, the West Bank and the Arab sector of Jerusalem.

—The Golan Heights and Sharm el Sheikh, which controls the water route to southern Israel and Jordan, would be placed under international supervision.

—Arab-Israeli negotiations, direct or through U.N. intermediaries, would begin on the question of demilitarized zones in the Sinai, the Golan Heights and the West Bank.

The Palestinian guerrillas have consistently opposed the formation of a separate Palestinian state that does not include the whole of what is now Israel, with Jews and Arabs living on equal terms. King Hussein proposed that the West Bank and Gaza become a semiautonomous Palestinian state federated with the rest of Jordan under his rule, but the guerrillas and most of the Arab countries rejected this, too.

Local Man 'Loaned' To United Way

A Circleville resident, Henry C. (Chris) Shuter III of 1068 Mulberry Road, is participating in the 1973 United Way fund drive as UW "loaned executive," volunteers who are loaned by their employers to assist staff with campaign operations at UW headquarters, 1441 King Ave.

HENRY C. SHUTER

The UW loaned executive program was launched in 1971 in an effort to improve campaign effectiveness and to better communicate the United Way story in Franklin County. In just three years, the program has developed into an invaluable part of the campaign effort, according to Charles F. Gatterdam, 1973 loaned executives chairman.

Shuter, a retail management trainee for the Huntington National Bank - Hoover Rd. office, holds a B.S. degree in business from Miami University. He is a member of the American Institute of Banking, Alexander Hamilton Institute, Grandview Missouri Lodge 618 Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, Grandview Chapter 145 Royal Arch Masons and the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry. Shuter and his wife, Melanie, have one son, Marcus Alan.

This year, a total of 35 businessmen and women from 24 area organizations are devoting a period of from four to six weeks on the local UW fund drive.

During their volunteer work at United Way, the loaned executives' regular salary and benefits are continued by their employers.

Open Letter

Dear friends,
It may be of interest to know that, after the death of a sole holder of a safety deposit box, access to it may be had only to remove the will, and only in the presence of an officer of the bank.
After the court has approved the executor of the estate, then only may any assets or valuables be removed. This safeguards the rights of the heirs, and assures the filing of the will.
Respectfully,

Woman Injured On Mini-Bike

Thirty-six-year-old Mrs. David Bircher, Route 1, Ashville, is reported in satisfactory condition at Berger Hospital after receiving injuries in a mini-bike accident 1:35 a.m. Sunday.

According to the report taken by Pickaway County Sheiff's Deputy Earl Kuhn, Mrs. Bircher was riding on the Harold Hopkins farm when she hit a chuck hole and was thrown from the bike.

She sustained an abrasion to the left side of the forehead near the left eye.

David Bircher, Route 1, Ashville, passenger on the bike, fell off the bike, but was not injured.

Harrison Township Emergency Squad assisted with the accident.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Bill Huffman cited Everett Diehl, 52, 517 East Franklin St. for reckless operation when he was involved in a single car accident 4 p.m. Saturday on the Tarlton-Adelphi Road.

Diehl was travelling south on the Tarlton-Adelphi Road when he failed to negotiate a curve and went off the left side of the road rolling the car over on its top.

Diehl received minor injuries in the incident.

The other three babies — Catherine, Nathan and Jeffrey — will be allowed to go home within 10 days, said Dr. James Strain, the Stanek's pediatrician.

John weighed four pounds, 13½ ounces and Steven weighed five pounds, 3½ ounces just prior to their release from the hospital.

The babies were born Sept. 16, seven weeks prematurely. Julia, the second girl, died two nights later of a lung ailment.

Teachers Back In Vinton County

McARTHUR, Ohio (AP) —Vinton County teachers apparently ended their month-long strike today and returned to the classroom.

"As far as we know" the teachers returned, a school official said. "We haven't received any word to the contrary."

A settlement in the strike, when began Sept. 21, was reached Friday.

Library Continues Potpourri Program

The public is invited to the second program in the Potpourri Series at the Pickaway County Public Library 10:30 a.m. Tuesday.

"Needlepoint Creations" by Mrs. J. M. Hedges will be the topic. Jean is known for her beautiful handmade needlepoint.

In addition to displaying the pieces, she will answer questions from the audience on technique. Other programs in the series include "Making Corn Husk Flowers" by Diane Drew of the Gardenwood Garden Club Nov. 6.

Coach Larry Cook of the Circleville Tigers will talk on "How to Enjoy Television Football" on Nov. 13. The last two programs, on Nov. 20 and Nov. 27, will feature Mrs. Clark McFarland on "Handmade Christmas Ornaments"; and finally, "Christmas Cooking" with Dave Craven. Plan to attend these free morning programs at your public library.

various items. The case is still being investigated.

Barbara Flinn notified police that most of her clothing was taken Saturday while she was in the process of moving at 613 Plaza Drive. She said the items were either taken from the residence or her car.

Larry Pennington, 463½ Watt St., reported the theft of a magnetic sign from the door of his car Saturday night while it was parked in front of his house.

A window was broken in the rear of Giovanni's Pizza, 114 S. Court St., Saturday evening.

Eggs were splattered on the washers, dryers and vending machines at the Washing Well, 1002 S. Court St., early Saturday morning. The vandals also tore down portions of the dropped ceiling in the building.

Juanita Frazier, 359 E. Franklin St., notified police that the front window of her residence was shot out with a BB gun between 3 p.m. and 11:30 p.m. Saturday while she was at work.

Richard Stevens, N. Scioto St., reported that someone slashed two tires on his car Friday night while it was parked at Main and Scioto Sts.

Palestinian State Pushed By Big?

BEIRUT (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union have proposed the formation of a Palestinian state along the Jordan River, the Beirut newspaper An Nahar reported today.

The newspaper said the proposal also calls for international supervision of the Golan Heights and the water route to southern Israel.

Comment on the report was not immediately available from the State Department in Washington.

The paper said the proposal had been communicated to President Anwar Sadat of Egypt but did not say where it obtained the information.

An Nahar gave this outline of the peace plan:

—Israel would withdraw from the Sinai Peninsula, the West Bank of the Jordan and the Golan Heights, all captured by the Israelis in 1967.

—A Palestinian state would be formed embracing Gaza, the West Bank and the Arab sector of Jerusalem.

—The Golan Heights and Sharm el Sheikh, which controls the water route to southern Israel and Jordan, would be placed under international supervision.

—Arab-Israeli negotiations, direct or through U. N. intermediaries, would begin on the question of demilitarized zones in the Sinai, the Golan Heights and the West Bank.

The Palestinian guerrillas have consistently opposed the formation of a separate Palestinian state that does not include the whole of what is now Israel, with Jews and Arabs living on equal terms. King Hussein proposed that the West Bank and Gaza become a semiautonomous Palestinian state federated with the rest of Jordan under his rule, but the guerrillas and most of the Arab countries rejected this, too.

Local Man 'Loaned' To United Way

A Circleville resident, Henry C. (Chris) Shuter III of 1068 Mulberry Road, is participating in the 1973 United Way fund drive as UW "loaned executive," volunteers who are loaned by their employers to assist staff with campaign operations at UW headquarters, 1441 King Ave.

HENRY C. SHUTER
The UW loaned executive program was launched in 1971 in an effort to improve campaign effectiveness and to better communicate the United Way story in Franklin County. In just three years, the program has developed into an invaluable part of the campaign effort, according to Charles F. Gatterdam, 1973 loaned executives chairman.
Shuter, a retail management trainee for the Huntington National Bank - Hoover Rd. office, holds a B. S. degree in business from Miami University. He is a member of the American Institute of Banking, Alexander Hamilton Institute, Grandview Missouri Lodge 618 Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, Grandview Chapter 145 Royal Arch Masons and the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry. Shuter and his wife, Melanie, have one son, Marcus Alan.
This year, a total of 35 businessmen and women from 24 area organizations are devoting a period of from four to six weeks on the local UW fund drive.
During their volunteer work at United Way, the loaned executives' regular salary and benefits are continued by their employers.

Philadelphia Thugs Go To Dogs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)— Charles Mellor and family, posing for pictures, look like any other such grouping: smiling wife, Jacqueline, young son, Christopher, and the family dog, Dolch.

But Dolch is really not your everyday family pooch. He's a snapping German shepherd, and a trained member, along with officer Mellor, of the Philadelphia Police Department's Canine Corps.

"He's not a gentle dog," Mellor said of the husky animal who's been his patrol partner in West Philadelphia for six months.

Dolch takes any amount of fondling from 2-year-old Christopher Mellor, but once he bares his teeth — beware.

The Philadelphia police added dogs to their arsenal 11 years ago, and now claim the animals are a major deterrent to crime.

There are some 130 dogs on active duty, according to the canine training supervisor, Richard Bridgeford, and about 25 of them staff the city's subways and elevated trains. The rest patrol the streets of North and West Philadelphia, high crime areas, and Bridgeford says, they could eventually be all over the city.

But head trainer Jack Appolonia claims the dogs aren't vicious, even after they've completed the 14-week training.

"A dog is like a prizefighter," Appolonia said. "He only fights on signal. We build confidence in the animal, and then taper it off. You'd have a nervous breakdown walking around center city for eight hours with a vicious dog."

Appolonia said dogs will obey commands from only one person: the officer who is trained along with the dog, and who eventually will be teamed with the animal. This bond is fostered by the department, which once housed the dogs in Police Academy kennels, but now encourages the men to take their dogs home. And most do.

But it's a long tough road before the dogs end up in a cop's home. To qualify, the dog must be judged physically suited by the academy's veterinarian, and temperamentally suited by the trainers. Bridgeford said two out of every three dogs donated are rejected.

Then there are tests to be passed. The grounds are laid out like a mini-Olympics field, with a 14-foot barrier for the dogs to jump, a nine-foot wall to be scaled, and a six-foot ladder to climb.

With all the concentration on that agility, sharp teeth are what the public usually thinks about and perhaps with good reason.

A few years ago a dog named Captain III helped catch four men robbing a soda plant. He bit three of the thieves, all of whom had to be treated at a local hospital for wounds.

However, it doesn't look as if the program will be hurt. The department maintains four kennels throughout the city, and has built so solid a reputation that dog teams from suburban Philadelphia and New Jersey departments now are trained in Philadelphia.

"We're turning out a good product," said a smiling Bridgeford.

Unless You're Trained

DEAR ABBY: You recently advised a storekeeper against keeping a loaded gun under the counter in order to protect himself against possible robbers. Why?

In Switzerland every citizen is required by law to keep a gun in his home, and they have one of the lowest rates of homicide and armed robbery in the world!

M.C. IN VA.

DEAR M.C.: I advised the storekeeper against keeping a loaded gun under his counter for "protection," because his wife stated that he had never fired a gun in his life. I repeat the advice.

You are correct about Switzerland. But their unique situation requires some clarification. Switzerland has no standing army, theirs is purely a citizens' army. Every physically and mentally fit Swiss male is required to take military training when he reaches the age of 20. He also must take a refresher course annually until he is 50. Meanwhile, he keeps his guns and ammunition at home.

If you are suggesting that perhaps if every American had a gun in his home, it would reduce the national incidence of homicide and robbery. I would remind you that unless one is well trained in the use of fire-arms, he is better off without them.

DEAR ABBY: Just a moment, please. What does "Bewildered Grandma" mean, saying her granddaughter looks like "a little old lady from the hills of Tennessee," because she wears her hair pulled back straight in a bun, no makeup whatsoever, and funny little wire-rimmed glasses?

What gives people the impression that we people in Tennessee are a bunch of ignorant hillbillies who still use outhouses, go barefoot, marry at age 11 and do nothing but drink moonshine all day?

Tennessee is a beautiful state, and Tennesseans are the most hospitable, considerate and compassionate people in this country!

DEAR PROUD: Bravo! Now, let's hear it from The Jackson Sun:

DEAR ABBY: A "bewildered grandma" complains because her beautiful 22-year-old granddaughter doesn't wear a drop of makeup, and doesn't go in for fancy hairstyles and up-to-the-minute fashions. I should be so lucky with my 17-year-old daughter.

She is a naturally beautiful girl, with big brown eyes, a flawless complexion and a gorgeous smile, but every morning she piles the makeup on so thick she looks unreal. I never know from one day to the next when her eyelids will be blue, green, or purple or brown.

I am waiting for the day my daughter grows up, and realizes, as "Bewildered's" granddaughter has, that the more natural a girl looks the more beautiful she is.

Air Standards May Reshape Life In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — New shopping centers, ball parks, highways, airports and anything else that attracts large numbers of cars or planes would be banned if they cause violations of clean air standards under regulations proposed Friday by the Environmental Protection Agency.

EPA proposed state review of planned "indirect sources" of air pollution under a court order won by the Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC), a citizen environmental group.

Meanwhile, NRDC has renewed its legal attack by charging that EPA was moving too slowly and was being influenced and impeded by the White House Office of Management and Budget.

In a petition filed Wednesday, NRDC asked a federal appeals court to cite EPA for contempt of court for missing an Oct. 15 deadline to propose its regulations, and to enjoin the OMB from hindering EPA's issuance of further regulations.

At a news conference Friday, however, EPA administrator Russell E. Train denied that his agency's action was delayed by OMB influence and said OMB was consulted along with other agencies routinely.

Last Jan. 31, a federal court ruled that state plans, approved by EPA, for achieving national air quality standards must also provide for maintaining those standards and not slipping back into pollution.

Train said Friday that only three jurisdictions — Alabama, Florida, and the territory of Guam — have submitted approvable plans so far.

He issued a proposed federal regulation to control "indirect sources" throughout the rest of the nation, but said approvable state plans could still be substituted later for the federal program.

'Deep Throat' Is Banned

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Common Pleas Judge Robert Black Jr., issued a temporary injunction Friday banning further showing of the X-rated movie "Deep Throat" at a Cincinnati theater.

Judge Black viewed the film Thursday.

He said the injunction would remain in effect until a suit filed against the Adult Theater by County Prosecutor Simon Leis Jr. is settled.

Leis' action is the first in Hamilton County in the wake of the Supreme Court's June ruling which turned the issue of obscenity over to local communities.

A hearing is scheduled Tuesday.

U.S. Medics Help Poor In Haiti

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two Miami optometrists and a Georgia doctor interrupted lucrative practices for a mercy mission to Haiti, where they examined more than 1,000 patients in five days.

"They had us examining people from the minute we got off the plane," Dr. Philip S. Sidran, 32, of Miami said Friday. "Some of the diseases those people had, you only read about in textbooks."

"We saw people walking around with diseases that Americans wouldn't be able to bear."

Sidran, project leader Dr. Richard J. Anton and Dr. Robert Coleman of Tifton, Ga., said they spent $600 of their own money on the trip, which began last week.

"It's something that I've been doing since 1970," Anton said. "We pay our own way and go to the people in the mountains — the people who aren't being helped by the charity groups in the urban areas."

Anton, 33, said his group prescribes medicine and writes prescriptions for corrective lenses.

"To say that these people are poor wouldn't be forceful enough," Sidran said. "It's hard to describe the poverty."

'Deep Throat' Is Banned

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Common Pleas Judge Robert Black Jr., issued a temporary injunction Friday banning further showing of the X-rated movie "Deep Throat" at a Cincinnati theater.

Judge Black viewed the film Thursday.

He said the injunction would remain in effect until a suit filed against the Adult Theater by County Prosecutor Simon Leis Jr. is settled.

Leis' action is the first in Hamilton County in the wake of the Supreme Court's June ruling which turned the issue of obscenity over to local communities.

A hearing is scheduled Tuesday.

U.S. Medics Help Poor In Haiti

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two Miami optometrists and a Georgia doctor interrupted lucrative practices for a mercy mission to Haiti, where they examined more than 1,000 patients in five days.

"They had us examining people from the minute we got off the plane," Dr. Philip S. Sidran, 32, of Miami said Friday. "Some of the diseases those people had, you only read about in textbooks."

"We saw people walking around with diseases that Americans wouldn't be able to bear."

Sidran, project leader Dr. Richard J. Anton and Dr. Robert Coleman of Tifton, Ga., said they spent $600 of their own money on the trip, which began last week.

"It's something that I've been doing since 1970," Anton said. "We pay our own way and go to the people in the mountains — the people who aren't being helped by the charity groups in the urban areas."

Anton, 33, said his group prescribes medicine and writes prescriptions for corrective lenses.

"To say that these people are poor wouldn't be forceful enough," Sidran said. "It's hard to describe the poverty."

Food Exports Growing

According to the latest U. S. Department of Agriculture wheat export demands, the anticipated record harvests for 1973, along with small reserves still on hand, could be wiped out entirely by this time next year. Corn and soybeans also are being hard hit by export orders, further threatening the supply of beef for home consumption. Export demand is building. The latest advisory is that export demand by next June 30 will be between 1.15 billion and 1.3 billion bushels. Coupled with domestic requirements of an estimated 756 million bushels, next year's anticipated wheat harvest will leave the nation with no more than 250 million bushels in reserve and possibly none at all.

Significantly, export requirements for next June 30 have risen 50 million bushels in the last month. There is no way of projecting what further increases may occur in the next eight months. If there are more, or if harvest projections prove inadequate, the demand could be more than the nation can produce.

That is not good news for the housewife, already facing record high prices. As long as export orders are accepted without limit, her prices are going to continue to rise and her choices will continue to be curtailed.

The Attack On Ford

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

So "they," meaning partisan Washington gossip-mongers who feed their stuff out to sympathetic reporters, are out to discredit Gerald Ford, Nixon's nominee for Vice President, while Congress is debating his qualifications for Spiro Agnew's old job.

A year-old book, "The Washington Pay-Off," written by Robert Winter-Berger, a former Washington lobbyist, is the source of much of the material being used in the gathering attack. Winter-Berger says he was a friend of Ford, having made his acquaintance by spending $1,000, according to his own account, to scrape an introduction to the Michigan Congressman.

One damaging story, as presented in "The Washington Pay-Off," is that Winter-Berger suggested to a depressed and irritable Jerry Ford that he visit a Park Avenue psychotherapist — a "shrink" — named Dr. Arnold A. Hutschnecker. The doctor, known as "Hutschie," will be remembered as the man who once had Richard Nixon for a patient (Drew Pearson spread this tale with the innuendo that Nixon had had mental troubles.)

On Dr. Hutschnecker's own word, he had been a practitioner of internal medicine at the time of Nixon's visit, and has treated him for purely physical ailment. He had turned psychotherapist at a later date, in time to receive Ford. But, where Winter-Berger says Ford was a "Hutschie" patient "for at least a year," Ford says he saw the doctor for perhaps 15 minutes just to say hello.

The "Hutschie" story is piddling stuff which Ford will be able to take in his stride if it is brought up against him. What is interesting is that it appears in a book that makes far more damaging statements about a slew of Democratic politicians, some of whom will be voting to confirm or reject Ford for the Vice Presidency. It was Winter-Berger who first printed the startling account of President Lyndon Johnson's allegedly hysterical visit to Speaker John McCormack's office on Capitol Hill to complain that Bobby Baker was going to make him "the first President of the United States to spend the last days of my life behind bars." "It's me they're after," so LBJ is quoted in "The Washington Pay-Off" as shouting at McCormack — the "they" being Republicans who hoped to stage a full-scale inquiry into the Bobby Baker case.

Well, Lyndon Johnson's friends in the Senate did manage to stop a full-dress investigation of Bobby Baker's career in high and low finance. Some of them later turned around and voted the Watergate hearings. A double standard? That's the name of the political game, as Republican Senator Hugh Scott recently reminded an audience in Claremont, Calif.

Speaking Of Your Health

We noticed that our 14-year-old daughter had a distinct change in her posture.

The X-rays showed a curvature of her spine which we were not aware of before. The condition has been diagnosed as "scoliosis."

Where can we read about scoliosis so that we can help her as much as possible?

Mrs. J.K., Mass.

Dear Mrs. K.:

Scoliosis is a curvature of the spine. Sometimes it is visible at birth. In other cases, it may develop between childhood and early adolescence. Usually there is an initial curve of the spine which is then followed by a compensatory second curvature.

There are many variations and many causes of scoliosis. The exact diagnosis must be established before any treatment is instituted.

A remarkable meeting of scientific minds took place last year at the International Scoliosis Seminar in Jerusalem, Israel.

The Israel Journal of Medical Sciences has reported this meeting in great detail in its June, 1973 issue. Supported in part by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, this erudite journal covered every aspect of scoliosis and its complications.

More than 200 orthopedic surgeons from all over the world met in the Holy City of Jerusalem to present and discuss their clinical, their scientific, and their therapeutic techniques.

Undoubtedly, your own doctor is aware of this definitive symposium on the subject of scoliosis. The Israel Journal of Medical Sciences is, I am certain, available in medical libraries throughout the world.

Our 12-year-old son lives in dire fear of contact with dogs. Is there any way that such abnormal fears can be controlled?

Mrs. T.W., Ind.

Dear Mrs. W.:

The initial psychological experience responsible for such fears should have been pinpointed long ago.

Dr. W.O. McCormic, of Dublin, Ireland, has been using an interesting new technique for the systematic "desensitization" of excessive fears.

He teaches his patients how to relax, then uses gradually diminishing doses of a tranquilizing drug as he brings his patient closer and closer to the source of fear.

This technique of reducing apprehension has been very successful. Many paralyzing fears of animals, height, small closed places, and of water have been controlled.

Modifications of this technique can be used by your own doctor, in conjunction with psychotherapy, to alleviate your son's anxiety.

Psychological testing prior to therapy may reveal the original source of his fear and point the way to its eradication.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Many young men are unaware of their continuing responsibility to register with Selective Service. It would be greatly appreciated if you would provide your readers with the following information. It would be a great convenience to the young men and their families to know the names and addresses of the Volunteer Registrars for Selective Service in their area.

The law still requires every young man to register with Selective Service within a 60-day period commencing 30 days prior to his 18th birthday.

The local board having jurisdiction over the registrants of Pickaway County is now located in Columbus. Those men having to register with Selective Service for the first time, however, may report to any of the following addresses to register:

Veterans Service Office, Mr. Shea, VA Officer, Pickaway County Courthouse, Circleville, Ohio, 9:00 to 4:00 weekdays. Fitzpatrick Printing Shop, Ms Laveck, Sec'y or Ms Stevens, Sec'y, 119 E. Franklin St., Circleville, Ohio 43113, 9:00 to 5:00 weekdays.

In addition, many high schools and colleges provide registration facilities for their students' convenience. The schools participating in this program are as follows: Logan Elm HS, Ms. Allen, Sec'y, RFD 4, Circleville, Ohio, school hours, Sept. through June only. Westfall HS, Mrs. Stubbs, Sec'y, Williamsport, Ohio, School hours, Sept. through June only.

For those men who are already registered, but have questions regarding their draft status, they may contact their local board office (LB 98, 614-469-5723) or the Advisor to Registrants in Pickaway County, Mr. J. W. Adkins Jr., 216 S. Court St., Circleville, Ohio.

Thank you for your time and cooperation in this matter.

Dear Editor:

I want to tell voters about Issue I on the November ballot. Issue I deals with the taxing of farm land. For years, Ohio farm land has been taxed at its worth for agriculture, not at what it would bring for future commercial, residential or industrial development. Last fall the Ohio Supreme Court ruled that all land must be taxed at its true or speculative value. Now we are having re-appraisals, as a result many farm families will face tax increases of two, three, up to as much as twelve times what they have been paying. Ohio has been losing about a thousand farms a year, it currently has 17 million acres in agricultural use. If passed, Issue I, a Constitutional Amendment will permit the legislature to enact laws permitting land used for farming to be taxed at its worth for farming. Twenty-nine other states have enacted such laws. If Issue I fails many farm families will be forced out of business. Many are farmers who have devoted the prime years of their lives producing food for their fellow men. It would be impossible for them to secure employment elsewhere.

Issue I does not reduce present taxes. It will just insure that the land be taxed for its use.

An example of land appraisal at $2500 per acre: Multiply by 35 per cent the new statewide assessment standard. Then multiply this by 38.80 mills, the rate for Circleville Township. A farm of 200 acres will have a tax burden of $6238. This example may seem high, but, there are many farms located in the area that can be appraised at this amount if Issue I fails. The present evaluation of most of Pickaway farms is 1968 appraisal of $350-$400 per acre. All landowners have the risk of their neighbors selling his land for many more times what it is worth as farm land. Immediately, the value of his land increases.

I urge every voter to consider the Issue. I ask you to support Issue I with a YES vote. Give farmers an opportunity to continue to operate and Save Open Space.

The double standard is at work again in the use being made of Robert Winter-Berger's book to put a cloud on Jerry Ford's qualifications for the Vice Presidency. Ford is pictured in "The Washington Pay-Off" as being money-hungry, but Winter-Berger at least does him the honor of saying that "Ford was the only politician I met in Washington who, to the best of my knowledge, would not accept a campaign contribution in cash." This is obviously intended in faint praise, for Winter-Berger goes on to paint Jerry Ford as a man who used technicalities to protect himself while raising the money in a most hard-fisted way for the Party.

Despite Winter-Berger's innuendos, however, Ford comes off as a paragon of political rectitude when compared to a score of Congressmen, a majority of them Democratic, who parade through the Winter-Berger pages. There is even an ugly moral imputation made in "The Washington Pay-Off" that would surely have brought a suit for slander if the alleged culprit, a Democrat, had been other than a public figure.

For years, Ohio farm land has been taxed at its worth for agriculture, not at what it would bring for future commercial, residential or industrial development. Last fall the Ohio Supreme Court ruled that all land must be taxed at its Undoubtedly, your own doctor is aware of this definitive symposium on the subject of scoliosis. The Israel Journal of Medical Sciences is, I am certain, available in medical libraries throughout the world.

Our 12-year-old son lives in dire fear of contact with dogs. Is there any way that such abnormal fears can be controlled?

Mrs. T.W., Ind.

Dear Mrs. W.:

The initial psychological experience responsible for such fears should have been pinpointed long ago.

Dr. W.O. McCormick, of Dublin, Ireland, has been using an interesting new technique for the systematic "desensitization" of excessive fears.

He teaches his patients how to relax, then uses gradually diminishing doses of a tranquilizing drug as he brings his patient closer and closer to the source of fear.

This technique of reducing apprehension has been very successful. Many paralyzing fears of animals, height, small closed places, and of water have been controlled.

Modifications of this technique can be used by your own doctor, in conjunction with psychotherapy, to alleviate your son's anxiety. Psychological testing prior to therapy may reveal the original source of his fear and point the way to its eradication.

true or speculative value. Now we are having re-appraisals, as a result many farm families will face tax increases of two, three, up to as much as twelve times what they have been paying. Ohio has been losing about a thousand farms a year, it currently has 17 million acres in agricultural use. If passed, Issue I, a Constitutional Amendment will permit the legislature to enact laws permitting land used for farming to be taxed at its worth for farming. Twenty-nine other states have enacted such laws. If Issue I fails many farm families will be forced out of business. Many are farmers who have devoted the prime years of their lives producing food for their fellow men. It would be impossible for them to secure employment elsewhere.

Issue I does not reduce present taxes. It will just insure that the land be taxed for its use.

An example of land appraisal at $2500 per acre: Multiply by 35 per cent the new statewide assessment standard. Then multiply this by 38.80 mills, the rate for Circleville Township. A farm of 200 acres will have a tax burden of $6238. This example may seem high, but, there are many farms located in the area that can be appraised at this amount if Issue I fails. The present evaluation of most of Pickaway farms is 1968 appraisal of $350-$400 per acre. All landowners have the risk of their neighbors selling his land for many more times what it is worth as farm land. Immediately, the value of his land increases.

I urge every voter to consider the Issue. I ask you to support Issue I with a YES vote. Give farmers an opportunity to continue to operate and Save Open Space.

Report 43 Infants Allowed To Die

BOSTON (AP) — Forty-three deformed infants were allowed to die with parental consent at a Yale-New Haven Hospital nursery rather than face lives devoid of "meaningful humanhood," two doctors say in a medical journal article.

The article in the Oct. 25 issue of the New England Journal of Medicine was written by Drs. Raymond S. Duff and A. G. M. Campbell, both pediatricians who had worked at the hospital.

The infants from whom doctors withheld treatment — with parental consent — constituted 14 per cent of the 299 infant deaths between January 1970 and July 1972 at the Connecticut hospital's special care nursery. The infants ranged in age from a few hours to several months old.

Individual infants suffered multiple deformities, mongolism, heart and lung defects, intestinal malformations and severe spinal cord and nervous system defects, the doctors wrote.

Campbell and Duff said infants with such deformities would have died a few years ago but now their lives can be prolonged with drugs, oxygen treatment, intravenous feeding and surgery.

Duff said in an interview Friday the 43 infants died earlier than they would have "because of a specific decision to withhold or withdraw treatment."

"They were severely malformed children who had an extremely bleak outlook and treatment was withheld," Duff said, adding he preferred saying, "We didn't fight to prolong their lives," instead of saying the infants were allowed to die.

The remainder of the 299 died despite an "all out" effort to save them, Duff said.

Duff and Campbell wrote they oppose any attempt to set up general rules on whether a badly malformed infant should live or die.

"We do not know how often families and their physicians will make just decisions for severely handicapped children. But we also ask: If these parents cannot make such decisions justly, who can?"

3rd Quarter Steel Shipments Boost Expected Yearly Total

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Third quarter steel shipments were higher than expected, boosting this year's expected total to around 110 million net tons if problems don't occur, Industry Week magazine reported.

The magazine said the figure "seemed out of reach as little as two to three months ago when most forecasters set 108 million tons as the limit."

But third quarter shipments reached a record 27 million net tons, a half a million tons above forecasts, and put the nation's 1973 steel production at 83.5 million tons, also a record, for the first nine months.

"Most analysts for steel companies feel that the industry will be able to ship 26.5 million tons in the last quarter," it added. "Mills have been able to raise raw steel production in recent weeks after a summer in which vacations, hot weather and shutdowns for equipment repairs lowered weekly output to a level between 2.7 and 2.8 million net tons.

The magazine estimated last week's output at 2,910,000 tons compared with the preceding week's 2,915,000 tons.

But the magazine warned that the nation's steelmaking process has been stretched to the breaking point by this year's record demand.

"Breakdowns in equipment that has been operated at peak levels for months are bound to occur," Industry Week said. "Raw materials are becoming even shorter in supply and more costly and in some cases, like zinc, have forced curtailment of some operations."

An upsurge in scrap prices pushed the magazine's price composite on No. 1 heavy melting steelmaking scrap to a record high $67.17 per gross ton last week. The preceding week's figure was $63.83.

Detente Helped Avert Mideast Confrontation

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon says his closeness with Soviet leader Leonid I. Brezhnev averted a confrontation in the Middle East and offers promise of bringing about a lasting settlement between Israel and the Arab states.

"I do not mean to suggest that it is going to come quickly because the parties involved are still rather far apart," Nixon said at a news conference Friday night. "But I do say that now there are greater incentives within the area to find a peaceful solution..."

Specifically, Nixon said the United States and the Soviet Union have agreed that in order to avoid a confrontation it is necessary that they use their influence more than ever to bring about negotiations between Israel and her neighbors.

The goal, he said, is "not simply a temporary truce but a permanent peace."

In recounting this week's crisis, Nixon said he ordered a worldwide U.S. military alert Thursday morning to indicate to the Soviet Union "that we could not accept any unilateral move on their part to move military forces into the Mideast." At the time, he said, the United States had reason to believe the Soviet Union was planning to send "a very substantial force into the Mideast, a military force."

The President said he also dispatched an urgent message to Brezhnev giving him "our reasoning" and urging that the Soviet Union join in support of a resolution in the United Nations to set up an emergency peacekeeping group.

The resolution was approved by the Security Council 14 to 0 that afternoon.

Nixon described the crisis as real — not "blown up" to divert attention from his domestic problems — and the most difficult faced by the United States since the Soviet Union sent missiles to Cuba in 1962.

Now that it has eased, he said, the outlook for peace in the region is the best it has been in 20 years.

"...because we had had our initiative with the Soviet Union, because I had a basis of communication with Mr. Brezhnev, we not only avoided a confrontation but we moved a great step forward toward real peace in the Mideast."

IH Strike Unsettled

CHICAGO (AP) — No new date has been set for resuming negotiations between International Harvester and striking United Auto Workers in 11 states.

The company said talks broke off Sunday after the union rejected a contract offer following an all-night bargaining session that began early Saturday.

Union officials could not be reached for comment.

More than 40,000 clerical, maintenance and production workers went on strike Oct. 18. Their regular contract expired Sept. 30.

Negotiating sessions have been held daily since the start of the strike. There is a news blackout on details of the dispute.

Company operations affected by the strike are in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arizona, Georgia, Texas, Minnesota, Kansas and California.

Kroger Co. Strike Ends

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — About 150 Kroger Co. drivers are scheduled to be back behind the wheel today after ratifying a new contract which will raise their pay 93 cents over the next 34 months.

Victor Everett, president of Teamsters Local 413, said members voted 102-26 for approval.

He said the trucks would be rolling at 7 a.m. and called the agreement, "The best we've ever had."

The pact provides an extra holiday next year and time and a half pay after eight hours in a day.

Ratification ended a weeklong strike which was respected by about 1,000 other Kroger employees who refused to cross picket lines.

The union said the company's bakery, meat plant, warehouse and cookie distribution center were shut down.

The drivers supply 85 Kroger stores as far away as West Virginia.

President Gives China Souvenir To Photographer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has parted with a unique souvenir of his 1972 trip to China: his personal gold and blue identification button mounted on a tie clip.

Nixon handed the clip to Roland Freeman, a photographer, as he walked out of the East Room of the White House following his Friday night television-radio news conference.

When Nixon paused to shake hands, Freeman informed him it was his first visit to the White House and the President handed him the clip containing the numbered identification button of a type worn by all those who accompanied him to China.

Said the President: "That is a good one, a special one — not the kind we give visitors. Don't give it away."

Peace Group Shifts To Lobbying

GERMANTOWN, Ohio (AP) — More than a dozen national peace organizations have agreed to discard protest marches in favor of lobbying in an effort to convince Congress to cut off U. S. aid to regimes in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

A three-day conference, involving more than 200 peace activists, closed Sunday with the participants agreeing to work together toward their common goal.

A spokesman for the conferees said the groups also would concentrate on freeing more than 200,000 political prisoners he said still are in South Vietnamese jails.

He said the groups would lobby in Congress and before church meetings, unions, city councils and other organizations to end U. S. support of the Thieu and Lon Nol governments.

Among the conferees were actress Jane Fonda and Chicago 7 defendants Tom Hayden and John Froines.

Ms. Fonda, who uses the title by preference, said the groups would concentrate on ending U. S. aid to the regimes because without it, the governments "would be forced to implement the Paris agreement" on Indochina.

Ms. Fonda and other conferees maintained the agreement has not been implemented since fighting still rages in Southeast Asia. Other indicators that the pact is not in force are that civilian political prisoners still languish in South Vietnamese jails, the Saigon government still suppresses freedom of movement, speech and political action, and the U. S. continues to supply the South Vietnamese and Cambodian regimes, she said.

Ron Young of the American Friends Service Committee said besides lobbying, the groups would encourage candidates running for public offices to promise to vote for an aid cutoff.

Also planned are special holiday season activities to focus the public mind on freeing political prisoners, granting amnesty to American war resisters and supporting humanitarian projects in Indochina.

Young said the groups plan activities Jan. 27 to commemorate signing of the Paris agreement.

Ms. Fonda said she looked forward to public approval of the groups' campaigns.

"It is very clear to us that the impeachment ferment means the American people are very upset about the actions of our administration," she said.

Ashville Junior Womens Club Holds Installation Ceremony

The third meeting of the newly formed Asheville Junior Women's Club was held Oct. 22, at the home of Mrs. Lou Deal, membership chairman for the Asheville Women's Civic Club.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. Ginny Irwin, president of the Asheville Women's Civic Club, welcoming the group with two inspiring short poems. The program was turned over to Jean Holycross, district membership chairman of the Central Ohio River District, who read to the new group the Junior Women's Pledge. She then held a candlelight ceremony for installation of the new officers, reading to each officer their purpose and duty to the club as well as best wishes. A gavel was presented to the club by Mrs. James Irwin and Mrs. Art Deal. The two women are responsible for forming the Junior Women's Club and have seen the club off to a great start.

Mrs. Martha Poling, central chairman of Ohio Women's Federate Clubs, attended the meeting and explained what Federated Women's Clubs have accomplished in the past. For example These clubs had much to do with Child Labor Laws. She explained that there are two volumes out on the history of Federated Women's Clubs with a third volume to be out within the next year. She briefly explained the different departments of the club and what each covered. The departments being: arts, conservation, education, home life, international affairs, public affairs.

Also explained to the club were the different projects that it can enter. The following projects can earn points for each club: Operation Healthy Babies, Pre-School Programs, Kidney Foundation, Retarded Children, Shriners Burn Institute, and Club Scrapbook.

A short business meeting was held. The club has decided to go caroling in the Asheville area on Dec. 17th. A bake sale will be held Oct. 27 at Bev's House of Beauty in Asheville.

The club has decided to donate 75 per cent of the proceeds to the saving of "Stage's Pond." This pond is one of the last ponds originally formed by the glacier and is an excellent wildlife habitat. The pond is currently being destroyed by farming in the area. As a small money making project for the new club a baked item will be raffled off among the club members at each meeting.

At the October meeting Mrs. James Huston was the lucky winner of a loaf of pumpkin bread. She in turn will be expected to bring a baked item to the next meeting to be raffled off.

Refreshments were then served following the meeting by Mrs. Art Deal, hostess and Mrs. Jo Ellen Deal and Mrs. Jody Hettinger, co-hostesses.

The next club meeting will be 8 p.m. Nov. 26th at the home of Mrs. Lillian Trego with Mrs. Krist Smith as hostess. Any women between the ages of 18 and 35 are welcome.

Mrs. Joseph Burns Speaks To Pickaway Plains DAR

Mrs. Joseph Burns was the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter daughters of the American Revolution, held at the country home of Mrs. Joseph Peters near Ashville. Mrs. Burns toured the Scandinavian Countries recently. The speaker gave an interesting description of the countries and places visited. The talk was illustrated with slides taken on the tour.

The DAR members were asked to bring old silver or pewter for display. Several members responded. Old coin silver spoons and pewter ones were shown. There were silver and pewter teapots, sugar bowls, and creamers, small and large ladles and one large stirring spoon were exhibited. This interesting collection was arranged on a table in the dining room.

The regent, Mrs. Joseph Peters presided at the meeting. Mrs. Martin Cromley read the President General's message. National Defense was given by Mrs. Judd Dresbach. Emphasis was given to the DAR's opposition to the Genocide Treaty. Mrs. Peters reported that the committee had packed eight large boxes of clothing to be sent to Tamassee School in Tamassee North Carolina.

Ashville Junior Womens Club Holds Installation Ceremony

The third meeting of the newly formed Ashville Junior Women's Club was held Oct. 22, at the home of Mrs. Lou Deal, membership chairman for the Ashville Women's Civic Club.

The meeting was opened with Mrs. Ginny Irwin, president of the Ashville Women's Civic Club, welcoming the group with two inspiring short poems.

The program was turned over to Jean Holycross, district membership chairman of the Central Ohio River District, who read to the new group the Junior Women's Pledge. She then held a candlelight ceremony for installation of the new officers, reading to each officer their purpose and duty to the club as well as best wishes. A gavel was presented to the club by Mrs. James Irwin and Mrs. Art Deal. The two women are responsible for forming the Junior Women's Club and have seen the club off to a great start.

Mrs. Martha Poling, central chairman of Ohio Women's Federate Clubs, attended the meeting and explained what Federated Women's Clubs have accomplished in the past. For example These clubs had much to do with Child Labor Laws. She explained that there are two volumes out on the history of Federated Women's Clubs with a third volume to be out within the next year. She briefly explained the different departments of the club and what each covered. The departments being: arts, conservation, education, home life, international affairs, public affairs.

Also explained to the club were the different projects that it can enter. The following projects can earn points for each club: Operation Healthy Babies, Pre-School Programs, Kidney Foundation, Retarded Children, Shriners Burn Institute, and Club Scrapbook.

A short business meeting was held. The club has decided to go caroling in the Ashville area on Dec. 17th. A bake sale will be held Oct. 27 at Bev's House of Beauty in Ashville.

The club has decided to donate 75 per cent of the proceeds to the saving of "Stage's Pond." This pond is one of the last ponds originally formed by the glacier and is an excellent wildlife habitat. The pond is currently being destroyed by farming in the area. As a small money making project for the new club a baked item will be raffled off among the club members at each meeting.

At the October meeting Mrs. James Huston was the lucky winner of a loaf of pumpkin bread. She in turn will be expected to bring a baked item to the next meeting to be raffled off.

Refreshments were then served following the meeting by Mrs. Art Deal, hostess and Mrs. Jo Ellen Deal and Mrs. Jody Hettinger, co-hostesses.

The next club meeting will be 8 p.m. Nov. 26th at the home of Mrs. Lillian Trego with Mrs. Krist Smith as hostess. Any women between the ages of 18 and 35 are welcome.

Mrs. Joseph Burns Speaks To Pickaway Plains DAR

Mrs. Joseph Burns was the guest speaker at the October meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter daughters of the American Revolution, held at the country home of Mrs. Joseph Peters near Ashville. Mrs. Burns toured the Scandinavian Countries recently. The speaker gave an interesting description of the countries and places visited. The talk was illustrated with slides taken on the tour.

The DAR members were asked to bring old silver or pewter for display. Several members responded. Old coin silver spoons and pewter ones were shown. There were silver and pewter teapots, sugar bowls, and creamers, small and large ladles and one large stirring spoon were exhibited. This interesting collection was arranged on a table in the dining room.

The regent, Mrs. Joseph Peters presided at the meeting. Mrs. Martin Cromley read the President General's message. National Defense was given by Mrs. Judd Dresbach. Emphasis was given to the DAR's opposition to the Genocide Treaty. Mrs. Peters reported that the committee had packed eight large boxes of clothing to be sent to Tamassee School in Tamassee North Carolina.

Future Secretaries Are Initiated

Dennis Shaul Looks Into Future

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Dennis Shaul, who nearly resigned as Ohio's director of commerce during a grand jury investigation of his department, says he believed public officials should take a breather now and then.

"I do not think it is necessary, this thing about politics and thinking you have to go up the ladder, you get into one job and you start looking up to the next," he said in an interview.

The 34-year-old Shaul said, "We might be better off if people would get in and out of it more, getting a perspective on what is going on with the taxpayer, people affected by what we are doing, getting to think again like they do instead of like you do when you are in these buildings writing these rules."

Shaul's reflections seemed to disregard traditional beliefs that a politician will flounder once he loses the power base of his constituency.

He conceded: "I don't know how realistic my look at things here is. Not too, I tend to think at times."

Shaul was asked about a recent editorial in the Akron Beacon Journal that suggested that the reason for his problem in the recent bribery indictment of Anthony LaFatch, a former Shaul political contributor, is that the former Akron councilman is a little naive.

"That's a good question. I guess whatever truth there is in that, I am less naive than I was six months ago or a year ago. I suppose a person's virtues run along and become his vices at a given point. I suppose one of my virtues is that I am open and candid, at least I try to be in a business that isn't known for that," he said.

Shaul said the publicity he received dealt his political career a major setback, and conceded that prior to the investigation, he had been considering running for a statewide office in 1974.

He probably will not remain as commerce director after 1974, and doesn't know what may come after that, he said.

The director, not unlike former Vice President Spiro Agnew, said he felt the printing of charges against him without giving him a chance to respond amounted to "a certain amount of viciousness . . . unworthy of the press."

"The fact is, there were times when I wasn't even asked to comment on allegations that just simply were untrue."

Shaul said he does not believe that Watergate, the Agnew affair, or even state level predicaments such as his should discourage young people from going into politics.

"I hope that young people are not discouraged by Watergate . . . messy situations develop and people are not really able to control them. We really need a constant injection of new people," he said.

Shaul, a product of the "American Graffiti" generation of the early 1960s, had advice for young people, especially those who identify themselves as being anti-establishment.

"I think it's harder to move institutions than we ever thought it was. You look back into the early 1960s, everyone thought that if you would spend the money and deploy the resources, everything would change just the way we would like it to be. But we found that we didn't have very many solutions to things.

"Another thing, we found that some of the problems were so tough and so engrained, that they do not really resolve themselves at all. I think that what I learned from this experience, more than anything else, is that this is an endurance test in a lot of ways, you have to have your skin burned a lot, you have to be patient, you have to take a fair amount of abuse.

"I think you have to keep going back to the motivation that brought you into it. I think that for decent people, a heavy percentage of them, there are certain kinds of changes that are important to make . . . they are worth making, worth doing."

Butz Denies Wrongdoing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz has denied any wrong doing in asking the Federal Trade Commission to delay until after the 1972 election antitrust action against one of the nation's leading winemakers.

Butz reacted to comments Friday by former FTC Chairman Miles W. Kirkpatrick and a newspaper report that the situation was being investigated by the campaign contributions task force of the Justice Department's special prosecutor.

The Washington Star-News quoted several informed sources as saying the probe was continuing despite the removal of Archibald Cox as special prosecutor. Cox's office declined comment and Kirkpatrick said he had not been contacted by the task force.

Federal law forbids influencing or obstructing a lawful investigation by a federal agency for improper reasons.

General Accounting Office records showed President Nixon's re-election campaign received $21,000 from three top executives of Heublein Inc., whose 1969 acquisition of United Vinters, a California growers cooperative, is being contested in court by the FTC on antitrust grounds.

'Johnnie' At Meeting

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Twenty-five years ago, he was known to radio audiences as a bellhop named "Johnnie" who cried out: "Call for Phillip Morris."

Today Dale Paulin, 50, no longer does cigarette commercials. He is a window display man for a department store in Marshalltown.

Paulin, who stands 4-foot-6, was here this weekend for a district convention of Little People of America. Eligibility is limited to an adult height of less than 58 inches.

Paulin said about 125 little people from Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and North and South Dakota were at the gathering.

Paulin said their plight is the same as that of other minority groups, except discrimination is "worse for us. The civil rights legislation doesn't mention physical size."

"We're trying to tell all little people and the general public that, despite our handicap, we can lead normal lives," he said.

Campaign Bill Said Partisan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Rep. Alan E. Norris, R-27 Westerville, Friday accused Democrats of trying to push through a campaign spending bill that would help them while hurting Republicans.

Norris said House Democrats "hiding behind the mask of campaign reform, seek to restrict the financial base of Republican candidates while at the same time leaving unrestricted the financial support of Democratic candidates."

The Democratic administration's version of the bill has been approved by a House committee, while a Republican version has been reported out of a committee in the Senate, where the GOP has control.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS
The Ohio Department of Natural Resources, through the Division of Parks and Recreation, pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of Sections 1501.09 and 1501.10 of the Ohio Revised Code, proposes to lease for the operation of a marine (boat rental) and refreshment concession at A.W. Legislative Report

By MYRL SHOEMAKER,
State Representative
88th House District

The General Assembly is in special session this week considering legislation on campaign financing. Six bills have been introduced and committees in both the House of Representatives and the Senate are holding hearings on the different proposals. Floor action by both houses is expected next week.

Automobile bumpers that have been raised or lowered three inches from the manufactured height will soon be banned from the highways. The removal of bumpers will also be prohibited. Tests have shown that such modifications of bumpers have serious effects on vehicle stability.

This new law will become effective October 31 and is the result of work by the 110th General Assembly.

Such adaptations of bumpers have resulted in roll-overs on turns and an increased tendency to skid. Rear-end collisions involving such vehicles have led to ruptured fuel tanks. The most common effect of removal of bumpers is to increase the amount of property damage caused by an accident. Research has shown that such modifications on automobiles increase the occurrence of fires in collisions.

The provisions of the bill would not apply to motor vehicles that are operated other than on a street or highway. This would continue to allow "High cars" to be used on race tracks and drag strips.

Violators would be guilty of a minor misdemeanor on a first offense with a fine up to $100. Each subsequent offense will be a misdemeanor of the third degree with a maximum sentence of up to 60 days or a fine up to $500 or both. By prohibiting such hazardous vehicles from the highways, Ohio's streets and roadways will be safer for everyone.

Certain voters who are confined in a jail will soon be able to vote by absentee ballot.

This is the result of a new law enacted by the 110th General Assembly which becomes effective October 31.

Many people are in confinement awaiting for their trial. Under our system of justice, a person is innocent

Firestone Strike Ended

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Members of United Rubber Workers Local 7 have returned to work at the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. plants in Akron, ending a 10-day strike.

The 3,400 members of Local 7 struck Firestone Oct. 18 after rejecting a supplemental contract covering local issues. The members reversed that vote Friday, accepting a contract which a company spokesman said was virtually the same as that which had been rejected.

The company said the reversal came after it was explained that a major issue involving overtime work was not one that could be negotiated at the local level since it had been a subject of national contract negotiations.

Julie Says Dad Gets Discouraged

CHICAGO (AP) — Julie Nixon Eisenhower says her father sometimes "gets very discouraged" and "sometimes doesn't even want to get up in the morning." "But he is willing to go through any pain to do what he thinks is right," says Mrs. Eisenhower.

Mrs. Eisenhower, here for ceremonies dedicating the suburban Dwight D. Eisenhower Junior High School, told a news conference Sunday:

"I am upset over the mood of the country that questions my father ordering a military alert because of the Mideast crisis, and my father's health. There have been too many major events in too short of time for people to have time to judge."

Indian River School At Capacity In Year

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Youth Commission's newest correctional facility, the Indian River School, should reach its full capacity of 192 youths by next May, school superintendent Harold T. Cowell said Sunday.

Cowell led newsmen and other state officials on a tour of the $4.5 million facility, which will be used to house many youngsters currently residing at the Youth Center at the Mansfield Reformatory.

until proven guilty. The purpose of this bill is to insure that these qualified voters who are presumed innocent will be able to exercise their right to vote. Present law prohibits persons convicted of a felony from voting while incarcerated or on parole.

The procedure for voting will be similar to the procedure for absentee voting due to personal illness or physical disability. A confined voter must fill out a form furnished by the director of the county board of elections. The form provides a request for a ballot and must be returned to the director not later than 4 p.m. of the fifth day before the election.

The written request for a ballot must be accompanied by a certificate from the chief officer of the jail or workhouse. The certificate would state the facts of the voter's confinement and would include an affidavit signed by the voter. Upon verification of the voter's qualifications and the facts of confinement, an absentee ballot would be issued. The ballot would have to be returned to the board of elections before the polls close on election day.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The National Weather Service said Ohio would continue to have cloudy skies and cool temperatures today. Some rain was likely in eastern and northern counties.

A low pressure system causing the dismal weather is expected to move out of the area by Tuesday, resulting in partially clearing skies. But forecasters said temperatures will continue to be cool.

Temperatures were expected to climb no higher than the low 50s today and then drop to near 35 tonight. Tuesday the highs will be 50-55.

Most of the rain Sunday fell in the eastern and central portions of the state. Totals of around an inch were reported at Youngstown, Akron and Zanesville.

Senate Probers Hear Cox Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fired special Watergate prosecutor Archibald Cox, who says he wanted more than just the presidential tapes, was to appear before the Senate Judiciary Committee today as lead-off witness at hearings into his ouster.

The hearings open during a week in which President Nixon's acting attorney general is to name a new special prosecutor to replace Cox.

Most senators, however, had their own idea about how to select a man to investigate the administration.

Central to this latest potential collision between Nixon and Congress is whether a new prosecutor will get access to sensitive White House materials, which could be evidence in one or another of the cases broadly lumped under the title of Watergate.

Cox said Sunday the nine presidential tape recordings he sought "were clearly only a first step in seeking a great deal of important evidence from the White House."

Liggett Attends Conference

Dr. Robert P. Liggett of Circleville recently attended the Annual Salt Fork Continuing Optometric Education Conference sponsored by the Ohio Optometric Association in cooperation with OSU and Illinois College of Optometry Alumni organizations at Salt Fork Lodge in Cambridge.

Over 240 optometrists from Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia, Kentucky, Florida, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Kansas attended this three day conference from October 23-25, 1973.

Classes were conducted by renowned optometric educators from OSU and Illinois Colleges of Optometry as well as practicing optometrists from across the state. Twenty-five varied courses totaling 40 credit hours were offered. Areas to study covered during the conference were: low vision care, glaucoma detection, pediatric optometry, new frontiers in contact lenses, cataracts and headaches.

All courses were designed to keep doctors abreast of the latest techniques and equipment in vision care as well as practical application of these techniques in private practice.

The philosophy behind conferences of this nature is to provide good continuing optometric education for practitioners so they are better able to serve their patients. This particular conference at Salt Fork Lodge was the largest program ever held in Ohio.

Dr. Liggett has been a long-time member of the Ohio Optometric Association which represents more than 80 per cent of the practicing optometrists in Ohio.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., a member of the Judiciary Committee, said he would seek to determine whether Cox believes he was fired because the trail in the Watergate investigation was leading to President Nixon.

Other senators promised questions about Cox's investigation into the Nixon administration's handling of the ITT case and the dairy industry's contributions to the Nixon reelection campaign.

The new prosecutor envisioned by Nixon is to be named this week by Acting Atty. Gen. Robert Bork.

Time magazine said Sunday that Nixon had rejected one potential Bork nominee, apparently on political grounds. Time did not name the person rejected.

Bork indicated Saturday he was considering some method of sending the name of his nominee to Congress for its approval.

A majority of the Senate, however, already has endorsed a bill that would have a new prosecutor picked by U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica.

Proponents of this plan, including Cox and a principal Senate sponsor, Indiana Democrat Birch Bayh, acknowledge there could be arguments over its constitutionality.

But they contend the plan would be upheld in what would be another court struggle over Watergate. Their object is to avoid having a prosecutor again subject to firing by Nixon.

Cox was fired by Nixon Oct. 20 after refusing to go along with a compromise plan that would have furnished an account of the nine White House tapes to the Watergate grand jury and to the Senate Watergate Committee.

As part of the compromise, Cox would have had to agree to forego any other court challenges to get records from Nixon.

A political storm cascaded upon Nixon after the Cox firing and he finally agreed to obey a court order and give up the tapes.

Cox said the tapes of White House conversations concerning Watergate may well "turn out to be less important in a practical sense than they have been in a symbolic sense."

Appearing on NBC's "Meet the Press," Cox said that had he continued as special prosecutor, he would have sought other White House materials and used arguments similar to those he made in court trying to get the nine tapes.

He said he would have sought materials concerning a meeting between Nixon and then-Agriculture Secretary Clifford A. Hardin about milk prices. A civil court suit contends the White House ordered milk prices raised after dairy industry figures promised Nixon $2 million for his 1972 campaign.

Alexander M. Haig Jr., White House chief of staff, speaking on CBS' "Face the Nation," said the milk price decision was made without regard to political considerations.

Ohio Power Hikes Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 553,500 customers of the Ohio Power Co. can expect higher electric bills as a result of Ohio Public Utilities Commissioner action Friday.

The commission approved a higher rate of return for the company. The rate will go from $59.5 million a year to $71.5 million a year, a jump from 5.3 per cent to 6.47 per cent.

A commissioner spokesman said Ohio Power will submit new rates for its customers in eastern and northwestern Ohio.

"They must file the new rates and the commission will determine if they are proper," he added.

The commissioner said the old rates were "insufficient to provide the applicant with a reasonable compensation and a rate of 6.47 per cent is fair and reasonable."

One of the hottest new sources for natural gas is the frozen north. America badly needs supplies of the clean gas energy available there to help solve the energy crisis.

Columbia has gone to the Arctic to get this gas:

- we're financing drilling programs in Alaska and Canada, including on the far islands of the high Arctic.
- we've gotten the rights to purchase substantial gas reserves already discovered on Alaska's North Slope. Once the Alaskan oil pipeline gets started, a natural gas line can also be built from the North Slope. We can't produce the gas until oil production is underway.
- we're participating in costly environmental and engineering studies on how to build gas lines from the frozen north to consumers in Columbia's service area.

There's much work yet to do, but gas from the far north will be coming along. Columbia Gas is working hard today to meet your energy needs tomorrow.

Natural gas pipelines from the Arctic will be built with proper regard for the area they cross. A study group in which Columbia participates has operated complex test sites and conducted lengthy field studies to examine the impact of a gas line on the land and waterways and the wildlife that inhabit them. These studies are providing the data necessary to meet growing energy needs with minimum disturbance of the environment.

Weicker Wants Tennis Match With Billie Jean

HONOLULU (AP) — Tennis star Billie Jean King says she won't accept a challenge from Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., to participate in another "battle of the sexes."

"I think the senator has bigger and better things to worry about than playing me in a tennis match," Mrs. King said in a telephone interview from her Waikiki Hotel suite Friday night.

Weicker, a 42-year-old member of the Senate's Watergate committee, issued the informal challenge Thursday at the end of a telephone question-and-answer session with high school students in Glastonbury, Conn.

"I think she's not only beatable, but she should be beaten, and I'll be glad to take care of her after I get through with Watergate," Weicker told the students.

But Mrs. King says the whole idea is silly.

Most Autos Fail Clean Air Test

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Automobile Club said most of the estimated 400 cars checked this weekend by a free clean-air clinic flunked the test.

Mechanics of the club's emergency road service and Mobil Lab, Inc., said most of the cars were poorly tuned and needed carburetor adjustments.

The club said the cars pollute the air by not burning all of their fuel, and the vapors account for about 10 per cent of the city's air pollution.

The clinic tested air-fuel ratio, idling speed and points, the club said.

Ashley Is Appointed To State PR Position

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Joseph A. Ashley, 29, has been appointed director of public relations, effective Nov. 11, for the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction.

Since 1971, Ashley has served as information director for Columbus Public Schools.

Voluntary Foreign Aid Plan Gets Nod From Americans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans generally favor the concept of foreign aid, but a majority believes that too much aid money is either wasted in administrative red tape or pocketed by foreign leaders, a poll shows.

A scientific national sampling of 1,222 Americans disclosed that a record 68 per cent of the public — up 10 per cent from seven years ago — believes it is the duty of the United States to assist the world's poor.

But a concurrent finding suggested that this sentiment does not necessarily mean support for official government aid programs; indeed, 43 per cent of the respondents favored budget cuts in U.S. assistance.

The survey was conducted by the Overseas Development Council, a private institution whose aim is to increase American awareness of the problems facing developing countries. The survey results were outlined in a booklet by Paul Laudicina, an associate fellow of the council.

The study concluded that the public has a low regard for government aid programs compared with voluntary efforts, which are considered more efficient.

"A remarkable 91 per cent of the public agrees with the statement that 'too much of our foreign assistance is kept by the leaders of poor countries and does not get to the people,'" the survey said.

"Eighty-six per cent of the public agrees that 'too much foreign aid is wasted in our own bureaucracy and never finds its way abroad.'"

These negative views have been reflected in rising congressional opposition to the Nixon administration's aid program in recent years. The fiscal 1974 bill, for example, passed the House by a hairline 188-183 vote in July. The Senate margin was 12 votes.

The survey suggested that the declining fortunes of foreign aid could be reversed if more funds were earmarked through the Red Cross, the Peace Corps or CARE, as distinct from governments.

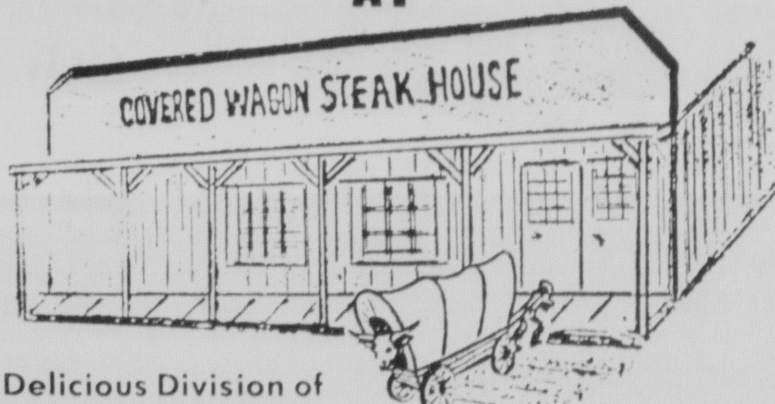

Chrysler Workers Return At Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — About 3,100 striking workers returned to work today after ratifying a new contract with Airtemp Division of the Chrysler Corp.

Members of the International Union of Electricians Local 775 struck two Chrysler plants here Oct. 15 over local grievances, principally a dispute on seniority.

Prehistoric Remains Found Near Toledo

A unique archaeological discovery on the south banks of the Maumee River near Toledo has revealed remains of a prehistoric settlement dated some 1,600 years old. The study of these remains has produced new information on Ohio's early settlers.

Among the finds were exceptionally well-preserved skeletons, fragments of pottery, a burnt bean, projectile points and other artifacts from the period ranging from 100 B. C. to 500 A. D.

A groundhog was responsible for the discovery. Its digging turned up bits of pottery and bone which were discovered by Robert Asmus, amateur archaeologist and member of the Toledo Area Archaeological Research Club. The excavations were turned over to a research team headed by David M. Strothers, instructor of anthropology at The University of Toledo.

NOACA Division Brings Protests

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Northeast Ohio Areawide Coordinating Agency officials have registered their dissatisfaction with Gov. John J. Gilligan's designation of the agency to head planning in only four northeastern counties.

NOACA originally was the federally designated planning agency for seven counties — Cuyahoga, Lorain, Lake, Geauga, Portage, Medina and Summit. But Gilligan has favored separating the latter three and moving them into another coordinating body that would include Wayne and Stark counties. In effect, it separates the Akron and Cleveland areas.

The move is generally favored by officials in the southernmost counties but opposed by the Greater Cleveland area to the north. And the federal government already has indicated it may oppose dividing NOACA's jurisdiction.

Strothers believes this to be the most productive prehistoric excavations yet completed in the area. The new site is significant in that the excavation disclosed two widely separated periods of habitation. The top three inches of soil revealed evidence of a 13th century Upper Mississippian culture whose residents occupied the area about 1,000 years after the original settlement.

Further excavations and lab tests will disclose information concerning the average age of the inhabitants, the ratio of males to females, prevalent diseases and their subsistence activity.

The burnt bean probably means they carried on some sort of agricultural activity as early as the fourth century A. D. Strothers said the Middle Woodland peoples occupied this area about the same time the Hopewell mound builders lived in southern Ohio and Illinois. The artifacts indicate that the two peoples had very little in common culturally.

Through microscopic study of earth samples researchers also hope to discover remnants of plant life which will indicate the nature of the vegetation of the centuries-old soil. It is believed that the Indians occupied the site during spring and summer and moved to a more protected area in the woodland during winter.

Four individual adult burials were uncovered. The most significant of these skeletons was one of a female in her forties bearing twin fetuses. The appearance of twins was an exceedingly rare archeological discovery.

Weicker Wants Tennis Match With Billie Jean

HONOLULU (AP) — Tennis star Billie Jean King says she won't accept a challenge from Sen. Lowell P. Weicker, R-Conn., to participate in another "battle of the sexes."

"I think the senator has bigger and better things to worry about than playing me in a tennis match," Mrs. King said in a telephone interview from her Waikiki Hotel suite Friday night.

Weicker, a 42-year-old member of the Senate's Watergate committee, issued the informal challenge Thursday at the end of a telephone question-and-answer session with high school students in Glastonbury, Conn.

"I think she's not only beatable, but she should be beaten, and I'll be glad to take care of her after I get through with Watergate," Weicker told the students.

But Mrs. King says the whole idea is silly.

Matt McGowan Qualifies For State Cross Country

Matt McGowan placed fifth to qualify for the state cross country meet but the Tigers second place finish in Class AA section 2 was not enough to get them a spot in the state meet. The Central District meet was held Saturday at Raymond Memorial golf course.

McGowan toured the course in 10:16 to qualify for one of the six spots in the AA state competition 11:20 a.m. Saturday at the Ohio State University golf course.

Circleville placed second to River Valley in section 2. River Valley was first with 40 points, Circleville placed second with 53 and Waterson had 72 points for third.

Bexley captured section 1 in Class AA competition. Bexley and River Valley qualified for the state meet. Teays Valley was 11th in section 1 with 317 points.

Other finishers for Circleville in section 2 were: Doug Radabaugh, sixth; Steve Watters, seventh; Robin

Martin, 16th; Bill Bruno, 19th; Keith Stevenson, 26th; and John Ater, 34th. Awards were presented to the first and second place teams and the first 20 finishers. The top 20 runners were named All-District.

Upper Arlington and Worthington qualified for the state meet in AAA while Caldwell and Lancaster Fisher qualified in A.

Vikings Edge L.A. Rams, 10-9

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Vikings won the Battle of Bloomington as they win most of their battles—in the trenches.

The Viking foot soldiers broke through the enemy's lines and totally disrupted their game plan en route to a tense 10-9 National Football League victory over the Los Angeles Rams Sunday.

"I tried everything, but they just out-executed us all day," said Los Angeles quarterback John Hadl. "No doubt about it, that's the best defensive team we've played all year. It was just a battle all day long—we never got the momentum."

One of the pesty Viking raiders was middle linebacker Jeff Siemon, who helped turn the war of unbeaten in the Vikings' favor.

In the fourth quarter when the Rams attempted a counterattack, Siemon blitzed through the Rams' line twice to harass Hadl and then socked the Los Angeles ace for a 15-yard loss.

"I was right in Hadl's face," said Siemon. "We knew if he ever set up to try to throw the long one, we eventually would sack him."

The Vikings thus improved their record to 7-0, the only unblemished record in pro football, and also improved their lead in the National Conference's Central Division. The Vikings moved to a four-game lead over the Green Bay Packers (2-3-2), who dropped a 34-0 decision to the Detroit Lions.

The Rams (6-1) lost a game off their National Conference Western Division lead to the Atlanta Falcons, who trimmed the San Francisco 49ers 17-3.

Two upsets punctuated the NFL's bloody Sunday as the New Orleans Saints turned back the Washington Redskins 19-3 and the Philadelphia Eagles hammered the Dallas Cowboys 30-16. Washington maintained a one-game lead in the National Conference's Eastern Division.

Elsewhere, the East-leading Miami Dolphins tripped the New England Patriots 30-14, the Central-leading Pittsburgh Steelers stopped the Cincinnati Bengals 20-13 and the Oakland Raiders, leaders in the West, trimmed the Baltimore Colts 34-21.

In other games, the San Diego Chargers and Cleveland Browns played to a 16-16 tie; the Denver Broncos slugged the New York Jets 40-28; the St. Louis Cardinals beat the New York Giants 35-27 and the Chicago Bears routed the Houston Oilers 35-14.

The Kansas City Chiefs meet the Bills in Buffalo for the weekly Monday night game.

The Ram-Viking affair, played before a full house in Bloomington, Minn., gave the fans their money's worth from the beginning.

Fred Cox kicked a 15-yard field goal and Fran Tarkenton clicked on a nine-yard scoring strike to Chuck Foreman to give the Vikings a 10-0 lead and then their brutish defense made it stand up.

Finley Adventure Continues Today

NEW YORK (AP) — The adventures of Charles O. Finley continue today with the next chapter from the baseball commissioner's office.

Bowie Kuhn will have an announcement concerning the latest development—a $7,000 fine for Finley's antics during the recent World Series.

Finley, the maverick owner of the Oakland A's, has been fined by Kuhn for various misconducts during the Series—including the notorious Mike Andrews case.

If you recall the last episode, Finley forced Andrews to go on the disabled list following two costly errors in the A's loss to the New York Mets in the second game of the Series.

For that action, Finley was fined $5,000, he said.

Along with the Andrews case, which took some of the play away from baseball's fall spectacle, Finley also rubbed Kuhn the wrong way in other instances.

The controversial owner made a public address announcement to Oakland fans that the A's were playing with only 24 men instead of the legal 25. A front-office misunderstanding had cost the A's a player for the World Series.

For that announcement, against Kuhn's wishes, Finley was fined $1,000 more.

Finley then got Kuhn's ire up by turning on the lights at the Oakland Coliseum to help his hitters in the bottom half of an inning. The rules say the lights should be switched on at the top half of the inning so both teams can be helped, not just the home side.

For that indiscretion, Finley was tapped for $1,000 more.

Finley, reached at his LaPorte, Ind., home Sunday, called the fine "grossly unfair." He said he would appeal two of the fines to the executive council of baseball—the Andrews fine and the announcement fine.

Tiger Junior High Reserves Top Westfall

Circleville's junior high reserve team downed Westfall, 12-0, in a hard fought contest Saturday on the Tigers' gridiron.

Joe Mogan tallied on a 30-yard runback with an intercepted pass and on a 24-yard pass from Richard Fox to account for both Tiger touchdowns.

Matt McGowan Qualifies For State Cross Country

Matt McGowan placed fifth to qualify for the state cross country meet but the Tigers second place finish in Class AA section 2 was not enough to get them a spot in the state meet. The Central District meet was held Saturday at Raymond Memorial golf course.

McGowan toured the course in 10:16 to qualify for one of the six spots in the AA state competition 11:20 a.m. Saturday at the Ohio State University golf course.

Circleville placed second to River Valley in section 2. River Valley was first with 40 points, Circleville placed second with 53 and Waterson had 72 points for third.

Bexley captured section 1 in Class AA competition. Bexley and River Valley qualified for the state meet. Teays Valley was 11th in section 1 with 317 points.

Other finishers for Circleville in section 2 were: Doug Radabaugh, sixth; Steve Watters, seventh; Robin

Martin, 16th; Bill Bruno, 19th; Keith

Stevenson, 26th; and John Ater, 34th. Awards were presented to the first and second place teams and the first 20 finishers. The top 20 runners were named All-District.

Upper Arlington and Worthington qualified for the state meet in AAA while Caldwell and Lancaster Fisher qualified in A.

Vikings Edge L.A. Rams, 10-9

By KEN RAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Minnesota Vikings won the Battle of Bloomington as they win most of their battles—in the trenches.

The Viking foot soldiers broke through the enemy's lines and totally disrupted their game plan en route to a tense 10-9 National Football League victory over the Los Angeles Rams Sunday.

"I tried everything, but they just out-executed us all day," said Los Angeles quarterback John Hadl. "No doubt about it—that's the best defensive team

we've played all year. It was just a battle all day long—we never got the momentum."

One of the pesty Viking raiders was middle linebacker Jeff Siemon, who helped turn the war of unbeaten in the Vikings' favor.

In the fourth quarter when the Rams attempted a counterattack, Siemon blitzed through the Rams' line twice to harrass Hadl and then socked the Los Angeles ace for a 15-yard loss.

"I was right in Hadl's face," said Siemon. "We knew if he ever set up to try to throw the long one, we eventually would sack him."

The Vikings thus improved their record to 7-0, the only unblemished record in pro football, and also improved their lead in the National Conference's Central Division. The Vikings moved to a four-game lead over the Green Bay Packers (2-3-2), who dropped a 34-0 decision to the Detroit Lions.

The Rams (6-1) lost a game off their National Conference Western Division lead to the Atlanta Falcons, who trimmed the San Francisco 49ers 17-3.

Two upsets punctuated the NFL's bloody Sunday as the New Orleans Saints turned back the Washington Redskins 19-3 and the Philadelphia Eagles hammered the Dallas Cowboys 30-16. Washington maintained a one-game lead in the National Conference's Eastern Division.

Elsewhere, the East-leading Miami Dolphins tripped the New England Patriots 30-14, the Central-leading Pittsburgh Steelers stopped the Cincinnati Bengals 20-13 and the Oakland Raiders, leaders in the West, trimmed the Baltimore Colts 34-21.

In other games, the San Diego Chargers and Cleveland Browns played to a 16-16 tie; the Denver Broncos slugged the New York Jets 40-28; the St. Louis Cardinals beat the New York Giants 35-27 and the Chicago Bears routed the Houston Oilers 35-14. The Kansas City Chiefs meet the Bills in Buffalo for the weekly Monday night game.

The Ram-Viking affair, played before a full house in Bloomington, Minn., gave the fans their money's worth from the beginning.

Fred Cox kicked a 15-yard field goal and Fran Tarkenton clicked on a nine-yard scoring strike to Chuck Foreman to give the Vikings a 10-0 lead and then their brutish defense made it stand up.

Finley Adventure Continues Today

NEW YORK (AP) — The adventures of Charles O. Finley continue today with the next chapter from the baseball commissioner's office.

Bowie Kuhn will have an announcement concerning the latest development—a $7,000 fine for Finley's antics during the recent World Series.

Finley, the maverick owner of the Oakland A's, has been fined by Kuhn for various misconducts during the Series—including the notorious Mike Andrews case.

If you recall the last episode, Finley

forced Andrews to go on the disabled list following two costly errors in the A's loss to the New York Mets in the second game of the Series.

For that action, Finley was fined $5,000, he said.

Along with the Andrews case, which took some of the play away from baseball's fall spectacle, Finley also rubbed Kuhn the wrong way in other instances.

The controversial owner made a public address announcement to Oakland fans that the A's were playing with only 24 men instead of the legal 25. A front-office misunderstanding had cost the A's a player for the World Series.

For that announcement, against Kuhn's wishes, Finley was fined $1,000 more.

Finley then got Kuhn's ire up by turning on the lights at the Oakland Coliseum to help his hitters in the bottom half of an inning. The rules say the lights should be switched on at the top half of the inning so both teams can be helped, not just the home side.

For that indiscretion, Finley was tapped for $1,000 more.

Finley, reached at his LaPorte, Ind., home Sunday, called the fine "grossly unfair." He said he would appeal two of the fines to the executive council of baseball—the Andrews fine and the announcement fine.

Tiger Junior High Reserves Top Westfall

Circleville's junior high reserve team downed Westfall, 12-0, in a hard fought contest Saturday on the Tigers' gridiron.

Joe Mogan tallied on a 30-yard runback with an intercepted pass and on a 24-yard pass from Richard Fox to account for both Tiger touchdowns.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "I guess you like to beat your alma mater and your friends as much as anyone else," Marietta Coach Joe McDaniel said in looking ahead to the Pioneers' crucial football clash with Muskingum.

Marietta, bidding for its first Ohio Conference crown in 39 years, can capture a berth in the league's championship playoffs by beating the Muskies Nov. 10.

Marietta clinched at least a share of the league's Blue Division title Saturday by downing Ohio Wesleyan 23-10 to keep its conference record unblemished at 3-0. The Pioneers were led by the passing of quarterback Steve Morris, who fired three touchdown passes, and the running of Dan Pottmeyer with 126 yards in 23 carries.

Over in the conference's Red Division, Wittenberg remained unbeaten by whipping Mount Union 35-17. The Tigers now are 7-0 for the season and 3-0 in the league.

Elsewhere in the Ohio Conference, Baldwin-Wallace routed Capital 56-7, Muskingum edged Denison 21-14, and Wooster trimmed Heidelberg 21-19.

In the Mid-American Conference, 16th ranked Miami blanked Toledo 16-0 as sophomore quarterback Sherman

Smith led the Redskin offense and Dave Draudt booted three field goals, and Ohio University beat Western Michigan, also 16-0, on three field goals by Gary Homer and a touchdown by Dave Houseton.

Other major Ohio college football action Saturday saw Ohio State crushing Northwestern 60-0, Kent State beating Utah 27-16, Bowling Green downing Marshall 24-21, Louisville edging Cincinnati 10-8 and Dayton defeating Drake 16-9.

The Buckeyes' sophomore quarterback Cornelius Greene and tailback Archie Griffin each scored two touchdowns as top-ranked OSU exploded for 53 points in the second and third quarters en route to Big Ten victory No. 4.

Fullback Mike Manger scored three touchdowns and halfback Larry Poole another in leading Kent State over Utah State.

Bowling Green tailback Paul Miles moved the ball 116 yards in 24 carries and scored three times as the Falcons spoiled Marshall's homecoming.

In Hoosier-Buckeye Conference action Saturday, Defiance tripped Anderson, Ind., 21-13, and Wilmington shut out Findlay 17-0.

Hiram kept its Presidents' Conference record unmarred at 4-0 with a 17-12 victory over Thiel, while elsewhere in the league Carnegie-Mellon beat Case Western Reserve 30-0 and John Carroll defeated Bethany, W. Va. 27-16.

Other results: Eastern Michigan 42, Youngstown State 2; Hillsdale, Mich. 16, Ashland 0; Fort Valley, Mich. 28, Central State 17; Oberlin 32, Chicago 0; Grove City, Pa. 13, Kenyon 0; Otterbein 9, Allegheny, Pa. 8; Ohio Northern 14, Bluffton 0; Southern Illinois 14, Akron 13.

College Scores Lopsided

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's hard to understand why Woody Hayes, Bear Bryant, Barry Switzer and Bo Schembechler are so unhappy. After all, their teams are ranked 1-2-3-4 in the college football ratings.

But listen:

"I hated the last 20 points," Hayes said after top-ranked Ohio State exploded for eight touchdowns in the second and third periods and buried Northwestern 60-0, the Wildcats' worst setback since 1899. "A game like this doesn't prove a heck of a lot the way we broke it open."

—Runner-up Alabama did even better, slaughtering Virginia Tech 77-6 and in the process setting an all-time major college rushing record of 743 yards as James Taylor, Wilbur Jackson, Calvin Culliver and Richard Todd all gained more than 100. "I didn't want the score to be like that," Bryant said. "We were definitely not trying to run up the score."

—Steve Davis and Joe Washington each scored twice as third-ranked Oklahoma whipped Kansas State 56-14 but all Switzer could say was that he was "very sorry the way we played." He referred to 14 penalties that cost the Sooners 126 yards.

—Schembechler said fourth-ranked Michigan "did not play a great game" in trouncing Minnesota 34-7 as Ed Shuttlesworth and Gordon Bell each tallied twice. "I was disappointed with our play in the second half."

But not everyone was unhappy. Joe Paterno was delighted with his defense after fifth-ranked Penn State walloped West Virginia 62-14 and Ara Parseghian was just overjoyed after No. 8 Notre Dame beat No. 6 Southern California 23-14, ending the Trojans' 23-game unbeaten streak and virtually eliminating them from a successful defense of their 1972 national championship.

Paterno said his defense, except for a 96-yard pass play from Ben Williams to Danny Buggs, was almost perfect. John Cappelletti's 130 yards and four touchdowns more than made up for that lapse.

And Parseghian was in seventh heaven after Notre Dame used Tom Clements' one-yard touchdown sneak late in the first half, Eric Penick's 85-yard dash early in the third quarter and Bob Thomas' three field goals to beat Southern Cal.

"This eliminates our chances for No. 1," said McKay. "Notre Dame outplayed us, which is the name of the game. They were well-prepared."

Elsewhere in The Associated Press Top Ten, No. 7 Missouri lost to Colorado 17-13, No. 9 Louisiana State edged South Carolina 33-29 as the lead changed hands for the sixth time on Mike Miley's one-yard touchdown run with 1:03 left and No. 10 Nebraska fought to a 17-17 tie with Oklahoma State.

Donohue To Retire As Driver

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Mark Donohue, who for years was called "captain nice" while showing his muscle as a racing driver, won four events at Riverside International Raceway during the weekend and then announced he is retiring from competition.

"I have enjoyed success and, while I have never felt that I was knocking at heaven's door while driving, I feel that it is time I quit the cockpit and do something else," the winner of five national driving titles said.

Donohue, who will be 37 years old next March, will become president and general manager of Penske Racing, Inc. He will replace Roger Penske, for whom he has driven the last six years.

The moon-faced Pennsylvanian, a serious tactician on the track and holder of a Brown University engineering degree for use in the mechanical aspects of his trade, used one of his most brilliant weekend in the sport as the springboard for his surprise announcement.

He had won two of the first three rounds of the inaugural international race of champions (IROC), a four-race series involving 12 of the worlds greatest drivers.

Then Sunday afternoon, he blitzed a field of 24 starters in both 75 mile and 125 mile heats of the last Can-Am race of the season.

Cincinnati Swords

Top Boston Braves, 6-3

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — News of the broken leg suffered by the Buffalo Sabres' center Gil Perssault sent a ripple through the Cincinnati Swords following their 6-3 defeat of the Boston Braves in an American Hockey League game Sunday night.

The Swords, minor league affiliate of the National Hockey League Sabres, are undefeated, 6-0-1, and are defending Calder Cup Champions.

Buffalo Sabres Stop New York Islanders

By FRANK BROWN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Mike Robitaille sat in the subdued Buffalo Sabres locker room. His club had just recorded a 5-2 triumph over the New York Islanders to move within one point of the first-place Boston Bruins in the National Hockey League's East Division.

Elsewhere in the NHL Sunday, the Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks played to a 1-1 tie; the Minnesota North Stars and Boston Bruins tied 3-3; the Pittsburgh Penguins bombed the New York Rangers 7-2, and the Philadelphia Flyers trimmed the California Golden Seals 2-1.

Lebanon Raceway Ends 50-Day Meeting

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — The Hamilton Racing Association closed out a 50-day meeting at Lebanon Raceway Saturday night with record totals.

A season-high 3,047 attended and wagered a record $214,827.

Brad Farrington, named the meet's winningest driver, produced a triple on the final night.

He finished with 12 first, 10 seconds and eight shows in 50 races.

Cleveland Crusaders Tie Houston Aeros

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ron Buchanan is scoring at nearly a goal-a-game clip for the Cleveland Crusaders in the young World Hockey Association season.

"Bucky" tallied No. 7 Saturday night as the Crusaders eked out a 2-2 tie with the Houston Aeros. Eighteen-year-old Tom Edur scored the other Cleveland goal—his first in pro hockey.

Reggie Jackson Named MVP For Performance In Series

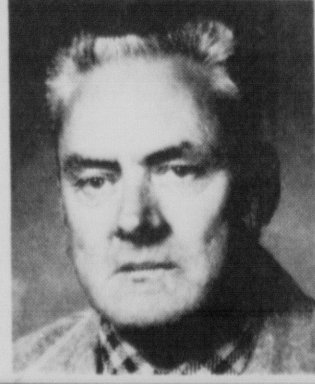

NEW YORK (AP) — "There's money to be made in the game of baseball," said Oakland A's superstar Reggie Jackson, "but I want the big salary for the smaller titles that go with it—leader, professional, winner, man."

Jackson, Oakland's colorful, outspoken outfielder who Thursday received an automobile for being named most valuable player in the A's seven-game World Series victory over the New York Mets, does not need the six-figure contract he'll almost certainly receive from A's owner Charles O. Finley next year.

"Because of baseball, and the fortunate things that have happened to me in business, I could walk away from the game today and still be well off financially," said the 27-year-old Jackson.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "I guess you like to beat your alma mater and your friends as much as anyone else," Marietta Coach Joe McDaniel said in looking ahead to the Pioneers' crucial football clash with Muskingum.

Marietta, bidding for its first Ohio Conference crown in 39 years, can capture a berth in the league's championship playoffs by beating the Muskies Nov. 10.

Marietta clinched at least a share of the league's Blue Division title Saturday by downing Ohio Wesleyan 23-10 to keep its conference record unblemished at 3-0. The Pioneers were led by the passing of quarterback Steve Morris, who fired three touchdown passes, and the running of Dan Pottmeyer with 126 yards in 23 carries.

Over in the conference's Red Division, Wittenberg remained unbeaten by whipping Mount Union 35-17. The Tigers now are 7-0 for the season and 3-0 in the league.

Elsewhere in the Ohio Conference, Baldwin-Wallace routed Capital 56-7, Muskingum edged Denison 21-14, and Wooster trimmed Heidelberg 21-19.

In the Mid-American Conference, 16th-ranked Miami blanked Toledo 16-0 as sophomore quarterback Sherman

Smith led the Redskin offense and Dave Draudt booted three field goals, and Ohio University beat Western Michigan, also 16-0, on three field goals by Gary Homer and a touchdown by Dave Houston.

Other major Ohio college football action Saturday saw Ohio State crushing Northwestern 60-0, Kent State beating Utah 27-16, Bowling Green downing Marshall 24-21, Louisville edging Cincinnati 10-8 and Dayton defeating Drake 16-9.

The Buckeyes' sophomore quarterback Cornelius Greene and tailback Archie Griffin each scored two touchdowns as top-ranked OSU exploded for 53 points in the second and third quarters en route to Big Ten victory No. 4.

Fullback Mike Mauer scored three touchdowns and halfback Larry Poole another in leading Kent State over Utah State.

Bowling Green tailback Paul Miles moved the ball 116 yards in 24 carries and scored three times as the Falcons spoiled Marshall's homecoming.

In Hoosier-Buckeye Conference action Saturday, Defiance tripped Anderson, Ind., 21-13, and Wilmington shut out Findlay 17-0.

Hiram kept its Presidents' Conference record unmarred at 4-0 with a 17-12 victory over Thiel, while elsewhere in the league Carnegie-Mellon beat Case Western Reserve 30-0 and John Carroll defeated Bethany, W. Va. 27-16.

Other results: Eastern Michigan 42, Youngstown State 2; Hillsdale, Mich. 16, Ashland 0; Fort Valley, Mich. 28, Central State 17; Oberlin 32, Chicago 0; Grove City, Pa. 13, Kenyon 0; Otterbein 9, Allegheny, Pa. 8; Ohio Northern 14, Bluffton 0; Southern Illinois 14, Akron 13.

Reggie Jackson Named MVP For Performance In Series

NEW YORK (AP) — "There's money to be made in the game of baseball," said Oakland A's superstar Reggie Jackson, "but I want the big salary for the smaller titles that go with it—leader, professional, winner, man."

Jackson, Oakland's colorful, outspoken outfielder who Thursday received an automobile for being named most valuable player in the A's seven-game World Series victory over the New York Mets, does not need the six-figure contract he'll almost certainly receive from A's owner Charles O. Finley next year.

"Because of baseball, and the fortunate things that have happened to me in business, I could walk away from the game today and still be well off financially," said the 27-year-old Jackson.

College Scores Lopsided

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's hard to understand why Woody Hayes, Bear Bryant, Barry Switzer and Bo Schembechler are so unhappy. After all, their teams are ranked 1-2-3-4 in the college football ratings.

But listen:

"I hated the last 20 points," Hayes said after top-ranked Ohio State exploded for eight touchdowns in the second and third periods and buried Northwestern 60-0, the Wildcats' worst setback since 1899. "A game like this doesn't prove a heck of a lot the way we broke it open."

—Runner-up Alabama did even better, slaughtering Virginia Tech 77-6 and in the process setting an all-time major college rushing record of 743

yards as James Taylor, Wilbur Jackson, Calvin Culliver and Richard Todd all gained more than 100. "I didn't want the score to be like that," Bryant said. "We were definitely not trying to run up the score."

—Steve Davis and Joe Washington each scored twice as third-ranked Oklahoma whipped Kansas State 56-14 but all Switzer could say was that he was "very sorry the way we played." He referred to 14 penalties that cost the Sooners 126 yards.

—Schembechler said fourth-ranked Michigan "did not play a great game" in trouncing Minnesota 34-7 as Ed Shuttlesworth and Gordon Bell each tallied twice. "I was disappointed with our play in the second half."

But not everyone was unhappy. Joe Paterno was delighted with his defense after fifth-ranked Penn State walloped West Virginia 62-14 and Ara Parseghian was just overjoyed after No. 8 Notre Dame beat No. 6 Southern California 23-14, ending the Trojans' 23-game unbeaten streak and virtually eliminating them from a successful defense of their 1972 national championship.

Paterno said his defense, except for a 96-yard pass play from Ben Williams to Danny Buggs, was almost perfect. John Cappelletti's 130 yards and four touchdowns more than made up for that lapse.

And Parseghian was in seventh heaven after Notre Dame used Tom Clements' one-yard touchdown sneak late in the first half, Eric Penick's 85-yard dash early in the third quarter and Bob Thomas' three field goals to beat Southern Cal.

"This eliminates our chances for No. 1," said McKay. "Notre Dame outplayed us, which is the name of the game. They were well-prepared."

Elsewhere in The Associated Press Top Ten, No. 7 Missouri lost to Colorado 17-13, No. 9 Louisiana State edged South Carolina 33-29 as the lead changed hands for the sixth time on Mike Miley's one-yard touchdown run with 1:03 left and No. 10 Nebraska fought to a 17-17 tie with Oklahoma State.

Donohue To Retire As Driver

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — Mark Donohue, who for years was called "captain nice" while showing his muscle as a racing driver, won four events at Riverside International Raceway during the weekend and then announced he is retiring from competition.

"I have enjoyed success and, while I have never felt that I was knocking at heavens door while driving, I feel that it is time I quit the cockpit and do something else," the winner of five national driving titles said.

Donohue, who will be 37 years old next March, will become president and general manager of Penske Racing, Inc. He will replace Roger Penske, for whom he has driven the last six years.

The moon-faced Pennsylvanian, a serious tactician on the track and holder of a Brown University engineering degree for use in the mechanical aspects of his trade, used one of his most brilliant weekend in the sport as the springboard for his surprise announcement.

He had won two of the first three rounds of the inaugural international race of champions (IROC), a four-race series involving 12 of the worlds greatest drivers.

Then Sunday afternoon, he blitzed a field of 24 starters in both 75 mile and 125 mile heats of the last Can-Am race of the season.

Secretariat Ends Career With Victory

TORONTO (AP) — "I hope I'm lucky enough to have another one," trainer Lucien Laurin said after Secretariat's last race. He said it without conviction.

With darkness fast falling on Woodbine race course Sunday, Secretariat romped home a winner for the final time in his brilliant 21-race career.

"We'll take him to Kentucky some time before Nov. 15," said Helen Tweedy, operator of Meadow Stable, after Secretariat's victory in the Canadian International Championship on a cold, wet and windy day.

Secretariat's future contributions will be at the stud. The Triple Crown winner will stand at Claiborne Farm in Paris, Ky., under a record $6.08 million syndication.

"He ran a big race and I wanted him to go out that way," said Ron Turcotte, the jockey who was part of the victory celebration but not part of the race for the first time since Secretariat's first two races as a 2-year-old in 1972.

"He's not a horse, he's a machine," said Turcotte, who missed the race because of a five-day riding suspension.

"I waited until he got ready and then I just went with him," said Eddie Maple, who replaced Turcotte.

Local Karate Club Gains 8 Awards

The Karate Club of Circleville competed against clubs from Laurelville, Wilmington and Logan over the weekend at Laurelville.

Jeff Lackey won the second place trophy for his Kata in the men's white belt division. Ray Dulin took first place in Kumite and sixth place in Kata. Larry DeMint was fourth in Kumite.

Mike Sherman gained two third-place trophies in the men's green belt division. Robbie Gans was second in the men's brown belt division in Kata and instructor Dennis Sparks captured third place in the black belt division in Kumite.

The Circleville Club captured eight trophies in the competition.

Cincinnati Swords Top Boston Braves, 6-3

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — News of the broken leg suffered by the Buffalo Sabres' center Gil Perssault sent a ripple through the Cincinnati Swords following their 6-3 defeat of the Boston Braves in an American Hockey League game Sunday night.

The Swords, minor league affiliate of the National Hockey League Sabres, are undefeated, 6-0-1, and are defending Calder Cup Champions.

Lebanon Raceway Ends 50-Day Meeting

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — The Hamilton Racing Association closed out a 50-day meeting at Lebanon Raceway Saturday night with record totals.

A season-high 3,047 attended and wagered a record $214,827.

Brad Farrington, named the meet's winningest driver, produced a triple on the final night.

He finished with 12 first, 10 seconds and eight shows in 50 races.

Cleveland Crusaders Tie Houston Aeros

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ron Buchanan is scoring at nearly a goal-a-game clip for the Cleveland Crusaders in the young World Hockey Association season.

"Bucky" tallied No. 7 Saturday night as the Crusaders eked out a 2-2 tie with the Houston Aeros. Eighteen-year-old Tom Edur scored the other Cleveland goal—his first in pro hockey.

Mike Robitaille sat in the subdued Buffalo Sabres locker room. His club had just recorded a 5-2 triumph over the New York Islanders to move within one point of the first-place Boston Bruins in the National Hockey League's East Division.

Elsewhere in the NHL Sunday, the Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks played to a 1-1 tie; the Minnesota North Stars and Boston Bruins tied 3-3; the Pittsburgh Penguins bombed the New York Rangers 7-2, and the Philadelphia Flyers trimmed the California Golden Seals 2-1.

Rollie Beale Winner Of USAC Auto Crown

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Life has begun at 43 for Rollie Beale, the U. S. Auto Club's national sprint car driving champion at that seasoned age.

"I wondered if I ever was going to win," said the Toledo, Ohio, veteran of 22 racing seasons.

Beale survived two accidents and needed three cars to finish sixth in the final event of the 1973 season at Eldora (Ohio) Speedway for his first USAC crown.

That gave him 1,094 points to 1,070 for runnerup Lee Kunzman.

CARROLL RICHTER'S HOROSCOPE

from the Carroll Richter Institute

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The morning is fine for accepting new concepts in your financial affairs as well as in partnership matters. The afternoon and evening require much tact to avoid serious arguments. Strive for more understanding with kin.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you do research work in the morning you can make real progress in present endeavors. Tonight use tact in dealing with others.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You have an opportunity to solve a financial problem early in the day. Use your intuitive faculties since they can be helpful to you.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Doing whatever pleases associates in the morning will add to present goodwill. You can easily turn an enemy into a true friend.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) If you don't waste time you can gather the data you need before afternoon. Relax tonight and restore your energies.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Morning is a good time to plan a social affair. Later attend to important duties but don't take any risks with anyone or anything.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Work family affairs out properly early in the day. Later iron out any problems in your business life. Entertain at home tonight.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Morning is the best time for keeping appointments. Take time later to solve any troublesome matters. Go over records for possible errors.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Show that you are clever in handling financial matters. Care must be taken in motion of any kind. Take it easy at home tonight.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) The early hours are ideal for handling personal affairs but the afternoon is best for business and property matters. Be wise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Do some confidential angling that can help put your project in operation. Steer clear of a social affair that could lead to trouble.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Do whatever will please your good friends and show how much you value the alliance. Think over your personal aims for the future.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Handling career affairs well during the day is important. Later be careful you don't lose your temper with a good friend. Relax tonight.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young persons who likes people and will turn out to be very gregarious. Be sure to include psychology in the educational curriculum. A great many individuals can be helped by your good and clever progeny. There is much travel indicated in this fine chart.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

NEW YORK (AP) — An ambitious effort to dispel a few myths about old age is coming up tonight on public television. It's called "Wrinkles, Birthdays and Other Fables."

The hour-long show, hosted by Flip Wilson and produced at station KCET in Los Angeles, is tailored for two specific age groups — 35 to 55 and those over 55, KCET officials say.

You might give it a try tonight, whatever your age, but don't expect any belly laughs, even though parts of the show try for them.

The basic idea of the program is to be humorous and informative. Informative it is, but the four skits intended to be funny are laborious and generally flat.

It's kind of surprising, too, because this isn't an amateur effort. The show's executive producer is Bob Henry, who runs NBC's "Flip Wilson Show."

And the list of performers volunteering their services for "Wrinkles" includes such fine pros as Barbara Feldon, Rosemary deCamp, Harry Morgan, Valerie Harper, Rosemarie, Art Linkletter and Pat Harrington Jr.

The humorous skits cover familiar old-age situations — a retired couple living out of wedlock, an old woman who complains her daughter "wants me to be a traditional granny" and a variation on the "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" theme, with old folks instead of a black man causing the trepidation.

But the best part of the says its purebred breed of show is a serious courtroom cattle is growing faster than number in which Harrington, any other.

Concert Scheduled At Wagnalls Memorial

MR. AND MRS. DON FRANK

Lorna and Don Frank will be appearing at the Wagnalls Memorial, Lithopolis 8 p.m. Thursday for a concert.

The Franks who are graduates in voice of Ohio State University are now living in Cincinnati where Mrs. Frank is a graduate student at the University of Cincinnati. During the past summer both Mr. and Mrs. Frank sang with the Cincinnati Summer Opera.

Frank, who placed second in the nation in the 1973 National Federation of Music Clubs annual vocal competition, appeared at the Federation's State Convention in Dayton last week. He also sang at Denison University's dedication of its new Music and Art Building, Burke Hall, recently.

Kennedy Leads Poll

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Respondents to the latest Gallup Poll chose Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., for president over Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

In the poll, 50 per cent of the 1,576 adults questioned picked Kennedy. Reagan was named by 43 per cent. Five per cent were undecided, and two per cent said they would choose neither candidate.

The survey was conducted between Oct. 6-8, and the respondents were asked: "If Gov. Ronald Reagan were the Republican candidate and Sen. Edward Kennedy were the Democratic candidate, which would you like to see win?"

In another poll taken early in October, Reagan was the leading choice of Republicans for their party's 1976 nomination, with 24 per cent naming him as their favorite candidate. Second in that poll was New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller with 16 per cent.

Kennedy was the top choice of Democrats as their party's 1976 candidate in a midsummer Gallup survey. He was chosen by 40 per cent of Democrats, followed by Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace with 16 per cent.

Firm Suspended Over Securities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Commerce Department said today it is suspending the broker's license of Provident Securities Inc. of Cincinnati for alleged misrepresentation.

Department spokesman Jon Christensen said an order suspending the license would be entered today.

The firm is accused of representing securities as redeemable on demand for purchase price when no such provision actually exists.

Congress Busy With Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both houses of Congress faced a calendar laden with Watergate-related matters and anticipated little legislative action this week.

The Senate Judiciary Committee had the first activity scheduled —

Legislation Against FDA Protested

WASHINGTON (AP) — The commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration has warned that legislation now being considered could return the country to the "patent medicine abuses which prevailed at the turn of the century."

Dr. Alexander M. Schmidt made the statement today in testimony prepared for the House Public Health and Welfare subcommittee, which is considering measures to limit FDA authority to regulate vitamins and minerals.

Schmidt told the group that the proposals would "diminish FDA's statutory authority to protect the consumer and would promote widespread consumer fraud."

He said the FDA rules in question simply require truthful labeling and rational combinations of ingredients. He said no nutrient or food components will be banned.

Only two items currently freely available, high levels of vitamins A and D, would require a prescription, he said.

Schmidt said if the FDA rules are overturned, "the marketer would no longer be required to present proof of safety of any food ingredient prior to its use in food."

hearings beginning today into the firing of Watergate special prosecutor Archibald Cox. The first witness was to be Cox.

The full Senate and House will reconvene Tuesday at noon after the weekend recess.

Senate Judiciary Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said that besides Cox he expected to hear from former Atty. Gen. Elliot L. Richardson and Richardson's former deputy, William D. Ruckelshaus.

They left the administration Oct. 20 after refusing Nixon's order to fire Cox.

The House Judiciary Committee, meanwhile, will continue its study of whether to begin impeachment proceedings against Nixon.

The committee also is entrusted with Nixon's nomination of Rep. Gerald R. Ford to succeed Spiro T. Agnew as vice president, but no action is expected this week.

The Senate Rules Committee may open hearings on Ford's nomination this week. Some Senate Democrats, however, are urging a moratorium on the matter until questions arising from the firing of Cox are settled.

In legislative action, the Senate will vote Tuesday on overriding Nixon's eighth veto of the year, this one on a $216.7-million authorization for the U.S. Information Agency.

Nixon objected to a provision cutting off funds if the agency refused a congressional request for information or documents.

The House on Thursday will attempt to override Nixon's ninth veto, on a bill that would limit a president's power to commit U.S. troops to hostile situations for more than 60 days without congressional approval.

Nixon's first seven vetoes this year were upheld by Congress.

Steady Increases In Crime Seen For Bicentennial Year

HARRISBURG (AP) — A swell in the age group said to be responsible for 50 per cent of the nation's crimes could turn the 1976 Bicentennial year into "one of the most crime-ridden in our history," a study here shows.

The Governor's Justice Commission, in a special report to the state Attorney General, said that both the state and the nation face "an almost inevitable" increase in the already soaring rate of serious crimes because of a population explosion in the age group of from 15 to 24.

The federal government classifies this age group as being responsible for half of all crimes in the United States.

"Our technical analysis suggests that there will be a jump in the crime-prone population which may peak in 1976, and that this could be accompanied by a rise in serious crime," the commission reported.

The commission called for a major statewide effort "to establish more effective delinquency prevention and treatment programs and to improve the capacity of the schools and courts to deal with the problem."

The impending possible crime wave was contained in an analysis of crime and criminal justice in Pennsylvania from 1960 to 1972, prepared from information supplied by the FBI, the state Board of Probation and Parole and the Bureau of Correction and several other state agencies.

"The public's fear of crime is based on some very real facts," wrote Commission Executive Director Drexel Godfrey Jr., "for the crime rate increased approximately 150 per cent during the last decade.

"Robbery", he said, "is particularly disturbing — up 350 per cent in the state and nationwide from 1860 through 1972.

"So far, at least, it is clear that the large amounts of state and federal funds pumped into the fight against crime have had no discernable impact on more serious crimes," said Godfrey.

Poll Shows Impeachment Favored

CHICAGO (AP) — Persons answering a Chicago Sun-Times write-in poll overwhelmingly favored the impeachment of President Nixon.

The poll ballots were printed in the paper last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The response, reported in the newspaper's Sunday editions, favored impeachment 6 to 1.

Almost 84 per cent, or 7,010 of the 8,390 responses, voted "yes" for impeachment.

The newspaper said 7,050 favored the appointment of a new special Watergate prosecutor to replace Archibald Cox, who was dismissed by Nixon.

The poll was tabulated before Nixon's Friday night news conference at which he said a new prosecutor would be appointed.

About 17 per cent voted against impeachment and 15 per cent were against a new prosecutor.

The Sun-Times reported that ballots returned after Nixon announced he would turn over the controversial White House tapes over to Judge John J. Sirica still favored impeachment almost 6 to 1.

Bloomfield Beggars Night Scheduled

Beggars night for South Bloomfield residents is 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

"GYPSY" TO OPEN—Roundtown Players' staging of "Gypsy" will open for five performances Nov. 7 at 8:30 p.m. The musical will be seen in the Memorial Hall Theater. Marsha Schneider is seen above in the title role. Tickets are on sale and reserved at Alkire's TV, W. Main St.

New Vitamin 'E' Diet Gives Fast Weight Loss

LOS ANGELES (Special) — New scientific discoveries have now produced a Vitamin E diet that quickly works wonders on overweight people, and reportedly is gaining great popularity across the country with glowing reports of easy weight loss "while still eating almost as much as you want."

Those who follow the simple Vitamin E diet report an average loss of at least a pound a day and even more without exercise or starvation. Nutritionists files are bulging with happy testimonials from formerly overweight people who are now trim and slim again. Best of all, you can still eat almost as much as you want of the "forbidden foods" like steak, chicken, fish, sauces, gravies, bacon and eggs and still lose weight.

Chewable (candy-like) vitamin E tablets, as used in the diet plan, contain a new scientific combination of ingredients that quickly curbs and controls the appetite, while also giving the wondrous benefits of Vitamin E which is so essential to good health.

The use of the new Vitamin E Diet tablets and foods prescribed in the plan will, through natural action, act to help your body use up excess fat. According to recent clinical tests, a person who is deficient in Vitamin E or Protein "will double the speed of fat utilization" with the use of Vitamin E.
